Dear Yolonda: My brother-in-law lives in another state, was bisexual for years. I know this because it's common knowledge on my in-laws' side, although now he's straight.

I'm not a gossip, and I could put his past aside, but lately something has happened that I can't overlook.

My brother-in-law has taken an interest in my sister. In fact, they met in my house. Now I understand that they're traveling back and forth to see one another quite frequently and my husband has mentioned to me that he expects them to marry. My husband likes the idea because he thinks that, with my sister's help, maybe his brother will "straighten" out.

Well, I hate the idea. I could accept things better if my sister were aware of his relationship. But my brother-in-law hasn't told her and my husband has told me that I'd better not tell.

This topic has started all kinds of arguments in my house. How should I handle this?

G.Y.L.

Dear G.Y.L.: The fact that your husband is willing to protect his brother, yet unwilling to allow you to protect your sister, is foul play.

Advise him that you won't break the news, but you'd like to hear that your brother-in-law brought in out. After all, with this being such "common knowledge," someone eventually is going to spill it.

Ruffin Arrested

Former Motown singer Jimmy Ruffin was recently arrested at the Detroit airport and jailed overnight after a loaded revolver was found in his carry-on bag, an airport spokesman said.

Ruffin, 47, was released from the Wayne County Jail when prosecutors declined to issue a warrant after questioning whether he was even aware that he had the gun.

Ruffin, brother of the better-known

David Ruffin, former lead singer of the Temptations, was arrested at a security check-point at Detroit Metropolitan Airport at about 5 p.m. He was about to board an American Airlines flight, said Lou Sugo, spokesman for the Wayne County Road Commission, which runs the airport.

"He was at the X-ray gate when his shoulder bag was found to contain a loaded revolver," Sugo said. "He said he had completely forgotten about the weapon being in the bag."

CARL STEWART STANDS UP FOR MINORITIES

One candidate for Lieutenant Governor has received the endorsement and support of major organizations and leaders... CARL STEWART.

- Winston-Salem Baptist Leadership Roundtable
- The General Baptist State Convention
- The Warren County Political Action Committee
- AFL-CIO
- N.C. Association of Educators (NCAE)
- Dr. Craig Phillips, Superintendent of Public Instruction
- National Organization of Women (NOW)
- N.C. Academy of Trial Lawyers
- N.C. League of Conservation Voters
- Professional Fire Fighters Association of North Carolina

• Clifton E. Graves Jr., Chairman W.S. Black Leadership Roundtable, endorsed Carl Stewart for Lt. Governor.

"After review and analysis of the records of all of the candidates for Lt. Governor, it is our opinion that Carl Stewart warrants and is deserving of our support."

• Harvey Gantt, Mayor of Charlotte, endorsed Carl Stewart for Lt. Governor.

"We must elect public servants who are willing to face the future and to put in place the necessary public policy that will continue to improve the lot of all of our citizens. Carl Stewart is such a man."

• Mickey Michaux, Jr., former U.S. Attorney and former member of the North Carolina House of Representatives, endorsed Carl Stewart for Lt. Governor.

"Carl Stewart is not a newcomer to the cause of minorities. Thirty years ago when he was 17, he took a public stand in favor of equal rights for minorities. He spoke out for change when it would have been safer not to. Twenty-two years later as Speaker of the North Carolina House of Representatives, Carl Stewart showed a fairness in committee assignments that surpassed any Speaker before him. He appointed more black committee chairmen than any Speaker in the history of North Carolina's legislature."

CARL STEWART
for Lt. Governor

• Carl Stewart supported and continues to support the modification of the second primary law in this state. He has an excellent record on civil rights, on social rights and on the rights of workers.

• If elected Lt. Governor, Carl Stewart will have minorities in key roles in the Lt. Governor's office. Not just a minority affairs person, but a black as legislative counsel to the Lt. Governor. Not a window dressing position but a key staff policy position for the State Senate.
