Local Daughters of Elks are awarded

Mesdames Mary Benton, Rochelle Penson and Betty Miller brought honor to Garden of Iris Temple No. 220, Daughter of Elks, by winning three awards at the state association convention in Fayetteville recently.

Daughter Benton placed first in the state queen contest and was crowned at the charity ball.

Benton, a member of Garden of Iris for 14 years, was elected trustee of the organization, climaxing her tenure in office as chairperson. She is a member of the Mary Ford Fez, the Past State President Club and co-chairperson of the State Queen Department.

Penson received the award for sales excellence in a special project sponsored by the State Brother and Daughter Elks. She is a member of the Past Grand Grand Daughter Rulers, Past State President and Past Daughter Rulers of the Order. Daughter Penson is also assistant directress of the State Purple Cross Nurses and a National Grand organizer. She is also a vice-Daughter Ruler of
