Mrs. Willie Caldwell celebrates 88th birthday

Nearly 70 friends and relatives helped Mrs. Willie Caldwell celebrate her 88th birthday, Saturday, May 19, at her home on Bon Air Avenue.

Known to family and friends as Aunt Will, many of the well-wishers traveled from out of town and added new leaves to the money tree.

Some of the friends and relatives included Grace

Allison of Statesville, her neice; Doris Gibson of Newark, N.J., and her friends Leona Cheatham, Ronald Helmski, Aaron Jordan, Chester Kennerly and Joseph Tomlin.

Mrs. Juanita Penn, Mrs. Caldwell's neice, who lives with her, Claudette Lindsay and Shirley Penn, both of Winston-Salem, served as the party's hostesses.

"I just couldn't believe so many people would come to my party," said Mrs. Caldwell. "I plan to use the money to fix up some of my old clothes, buy me some new ones and take a long vacation this summer."

The vacation will include a trip to the Zeta Phi Beta Boule' in Detroit, with neice Juanita and later flying to New Jersey to visit with another neice.

Excited about her birthday celebration, Mrs. Caldwell said, "It was just so nice. I just want everybody to know how much I appreciate everything. I enjoyed it so much."

The highlight of the day, said Mrs. Caldwell, was 3-year-old Lauren Chavis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Blair Chavis of Kernersville, who sang the birthday song.

The Book Club of Today hosts garden party

The Book Club of Today held a garden party on the lawn of Mrs. Ivey Nell and McDaniel's home at 1779 Carver Road on Tuesday afternoon, May 15.

Mrs. Bronnie Daniels welcomed the members and their guests, who were seated at tables placed about the lawn. Miss Louise Smith, chairman of the social committee, then directed members to the patio for a buffet-styled dinner.

Following the dinner, Mrs. Barbara Hayes presented the Nell Lite Players, and J.W. Smith and Nell Britton performed a one-act comedy titled "My Name is Herbert."

Mrs. Daniels, outgoing president, gave the closing remarks, including the introduction of out-of-town guests and newcomers to the city. She then gave each club member a plaque with the inscription of the club's name, the year the member joined and the member's name.

Among the guests attending were Mrs. Olie Carpenter, Mrs. Mildred Poindexter, Mrs. Mary Hopkins, Mrs. Marjorie Howell, Mrs. Elizabeth Grinton, Mrs. Estler Lassiter, Mrs. Nina Steele, H.O. Bright, Mr. and Mrs.
