"A Foolish Thought"

A foolish thought I entertained
But only for a moment.
If of death I'd embrace and kiss
Would me my family and friends miss?
Or would evil follow and haunt my name
and make my family and friends ashamed?
Oh, what a foolish thought to entertain,
on God's green earth I shall remain.

"Pass It On"

Joy peace, happiness
pass it on.
Love, kindness, sweet caress
pass it on.
Pass it on Pass it on
Whatever God gives you, pass it on.
Your measure will be more than you ever bargained for.

"In the Center of God's Will"

In the middle of the circle
in the center of His will,
waiting still for His direction
to receive the things he has to give.
I must always walk behind Him
and never shall I go astray.
I will seek his face forever
if I do His will today.

WEEK OF: JULY 5, 1984

AQUARIUS - January 21-February 19
Lots of fun this week - much of it happening at home, or close to it. Loved one has cause for celebration - your encouragement means very much now.

PISCES - February 20-March 20
Be cautious signing any dotted lines this week, and generally avoid impulsive moves. A curious friend may be prying more than you'd like - it may be time to speak out.

ARIES - March 21-April 20
Emphasis is on partnership activities, financial or romantic. In either case, establish ground rules early on. Public speaking opportunity can lead to professional advancement.

TAURUS - April 21-May 22
New places and new interests are twin themes of the week. Loved one appears surprisingly independent through the weekend. Unexpected educational program is highlighted after Monday.

GEMINI - May 23-June 21
Being observant can lead to career or other advances. Leisure time offers opportunity to explore new interests. Loved ones are easy to please - make your requests through this period.

CANCER - June 22-July 22
Overdue acknowledgement or reply arrives this week and loose ends can generally be tied up now. Romance shows its sentimental side. Older relative/friend helps you over academic hurdle.

LEO - July 23-August 22
Self-confidence droops and then soars, making you an unpredictable Leo through the week. Investments should not be made on a whim. Small financial windfall may arrive by Tuesday.

VIRGO - August 23-September 22
A let-down feeling may follow the completion of a major task, but by Tuesday you're deep in a new and potentially profitable venture. Cultural activities are emphasized on weekend.

LIBRA - September 23-October 22
A week in which to build upon existing relationships - not for launching new schemes. Partner or colleague benefits from your encouragement. Youngster shows unexpected signs of maturity.

SCORPIO - October 23-November 21
Partner is impulsive, eager to act on hunches. On the other hand, your best results are based on logical actions. Repair jobs need prompt - and professional - attention.

SAGITTARIUS - November 22-December 22
Family tensions begin to ease and travel, therefore, can prove more delightful than anticipated. There's a new admirer in your life - perhaps someone much younger than yourself.

CAPRICORN - December 23-January 20
Romantic situation begins to stabilize and you understand the direction in which your relationship is headed. Business alliances are favored. Travel prospects are surprisingly bright.

BIRTHDAY THIS WEEK
You have a broad range of interests, but there's nothing superficial about you. Learning from the past is something you have learned to do well. Career prospects expand through the next six months. Prestige is enhanced early in 1985.

BORN THIS WEEK
July 5th, showman P.T. Barnum; 6th, host Merv Griffin; 7th, singer Ringo Starr; 8th, actress Kim Darby; 9th, actor Richard Roundtree; 10th, actress Sue Lyon; 11th, actor Tab Hunter.

being honored.

The final determination of who will receive tickets will be made by a computerized random selection process.

A coupon with complete instructions on how to purchase tickets will appear in daily newspapers. To simplify the logistics of Jacksons ticket distribution -- a complex business when ticket requests are likely to number in the millions -- all ticket orders must be for four tickets, no more, no less.

Tickets will be sold for a uniform $28, with a two-dollar handling charge.

10th Anniversary

Mr. Eugene Morris, Senior Vice President and Management Supervisor, Burrell Advertising and Mr. Bud Ballard, Vice President and Senior Brand Manager, Brown-Forman Distillers shake hands as they confirm plans for another year of successful business between Burrell Advertising and Brown-Forman Distillers during a recent celebration of their 10th anniversary of doing business together in Louisville, Kentucky.
