Four clubs win awards at meeting

During the 49th annual convention of the Federation of Garden Clubs of North Carolina held Aug. 6-7, four clubs were awarded ribbons as winners in the Scrapbook and Yearbook Exhibit.

First place winner was the Aster Garden Club of Henderson. Second place went to the Town and Country Garden Club of Warrenton. Third place winner was the Snap Dragons Garden Club of Franklinton. The three fourth place winners were the Flower Niche Garden Club of Winston-Salem, the Old Fashion Garden Club of Louisburg and the Orlando Garden Club of Laurinburg.

Mrs. Annie Dunn of the Irwin Park Garden Club in Charlotte was crowned queen. Ms. Vivian White of the La Petite Garden Club of Durham was crowned Junior Queen.

The adult workshop was supervised by David Barkly, associate agricultural extension agent of New Hanover County. His topic of discussion was "Beautification Through Recycling of Plant Materials."

The convention program was dedicated to Thomas Flowers of Greensboro, who died April 7, 1984. Flowers was honored for his years of service to the organization.

A special thanks was extended to the newly-formed Bouquet of Elegance Garden Club of Wilmington, which served as the convention host. The club was offered honorary membership, which was accepted by the president, Mrs. Polly O. Richards.

The officers for the 1984-85 year are president, Mrs. Martha Terrell of Greensboro; first vice president, Mrs. Minnie Connors of Charlotte; second vice president, Mrs. Edythe Williams of Winston-Salem; third vice president, Mrs. Genevieve McCrea of Durham; recording secretary, Mrs. Cora Hawkins of Warrenton; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Thay Evans of Greensboro; financial secretary, Mrs. Nancy English of Charlotte; treasurer, Mrs. Inez Ellis of Charlotte; historian, Mrs. Geraldine Smith of Winston-Salem and parliamentarian, Mrs. Wilma Miles of Louisburg.

M.S. Everhart

Navy Petty Officer 3rd Class Michael S. Everhart, a 1976 graduate of R.J. Reynolds High School, has been awarded the Naval Aircrew Insignia.

Everhart earned the aircrewman designation by completing extensive ground and flight instruction.

The insignia was presented during ceremonies at the Marine Corps Air Station in Cherry Point, where he serves with the 2nd Marine Aircraft Wing.

Marine Pvt. Matthew K. Latten, son of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew E. Latten of Winston-Salem, and Marine Pvt. Jonnie R. Braboy, son of Dorothy Braboy of Winston-Salem, have completed recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot in Parris Island, S.C.

During the 11-week training cycle, both learned the basics of battlefield survival. They were introduced to the typical, daily routine that they will experience during their enlistment and studied the personal and professional standards traditionally exhibited by Marines.
