"How To Make It"

How did you make it?
 How did you take it?
 I began to ask the Lord.
 And in a sweet, small voice, He made it plain.
 He said, "I went through everything just like you might have to do,
 "And the good part about it is, I've already paid your way through.
 "I made it and so can you, for now that I'm back in Glory
 "I've got the power to carry you through.
 "Some day we'll talk face to face, and I'll tell you about some of the tricks Satan pulled on me, to keep me from becoming free.
 "He tried so hard to make me stray,
 "But I always remembered, I had to pray,
 "How did I make it?
 "How did I take it?
 "I kept my hands in my Father's hand and He made the way, without any delay.
 "Now I'm sitting on the right side of my Father safe and sound, happy as can be "For, through the Cross, I was made free.
 "Just hold on a little while longer, and with me you'll soon be.
 "Free from sin and have total victory,
 "How did I make it?
 "How did I take it? Now you can see. I depended on my father, but you can depend on me."

A Thought

God never asks us to give up something He won't replace with something equal or greater.

Jayne Penne'

"Loneliness From A Crime I Didn't Do"

At each awakening ... from time to time-
 I forget about what...why...and how,
 My goals are high...why...and how
 How in the world will I know?
 It's dismal, my life this time,
 Cause I'm the fool of this crime
 Searching to find why--but lost the feel.
 Loneliness...hurt...it's all inside--
 Slow in life I've come to be...
 The grey of red and black you see!
 Nothing for sure, only hope...some despair...
 A life downhill and nothing to compare.
 Happy...sad...joy and hurt; walking and talking and losing what I had...
 There's nothing to compare to this loneliness I have.

Jesus

Jesus, I love you more than life,
 for you've become my heart.
 You made me "Born Again," you've given my life a brand new start.
 See, loving you could bring no tomorrow;
 forever would be today.
 There could be no paths in life to follow,
 cause loving you would be the only way.
 You're the only light that shines, for, when I met you
 I was living in the darkness of Hell.
 Your love has become all the fruit of life,
 and all the water in the well.
 You're every ounce of gold, there has ever been,
 you're the sky colored, an everlasting blue.
 You're the life after life, and now that I have you,
 the only life I ever knew.

STARSCOPE

WEEK OF: SEPTEMBER 27, 1984

AQUARIUS - January 21-February 19
 Improvement is week's keyword; you can make gradual strides in spheres of romance, finance and career — but in all three, observation and dedication are essential ingredients.

PISCES - February 20-March 20
 Excellent chance opens up for reconciliations with friends. Ideas are bright, but the major task is putting them in operation. Expect some delays on the weekend.

ARIES - March 21-April 20
 A troublesome obligation can be fulfilled with unexpected ease — a sense of humor is the key. Domestic responsibility can be shared — but you must make the overtures.

TAURUS - April 21-May 21
 The week includes little jaunts and some glamorous events. Financial bonus may come your way by Monday-Tuesday. Loved one is in a playful and fanciful mood.

GEMINI - May 22-June 21
 A change truly is as good as a rest — and likely even better. Mere acquaintance is unexpectedly generous and you're entitled to be a little skeptical of the motives.

CANCER - June 22-July 22
 A rather successful week if accepting mental challenges or entering contests of skill. Friend's misconceptions can lead to a confrontation — nip the problem in the bud.

LEO - July 23-August 22
 Matters involving household business require full attention. Short-distance travel, bargain hunting, bartering, and renewed friendship are all in week's picture.

VIRGO - August 23-September 22
 Good week for making professional contacts. Impractical friend becomes surprisingly pragmatic. Public speaking — with the accent on wit — is a present strength.

LIBRA - September 23-October 22
 Make no announcements until all the facts are available. Sports are accented. Fashion ideas may be surprisingly bold — but surprisingly effective as well.

SCORPIO - October 23-November 21
 Property matters are spotlighted through the week. Older relative becomes supportive and — if asked — can offer some valuable ideas. Your own hunches are weak after Monday.

SAGITTARIUS - November 22-December 22
 Social life is in full swing, and parties hosted now are memorable for their flair. Legal matters require careful attention. Unexpected difficulties may delay agreements.

CAPRICORN - December 23-January 20
 Events are taking place in the background that signify positive changes in the near future. You respond well to challenges, but don't over-extend yourself this week.

BIRTHDAY THIS WEEK
 Your greatest strength — and a possible weakness — is that you see both sides of every situation. In the next six months, this trait is a definite asset — winning you a possible promotion and the respect of people you cherish.

BORN THIS WEEK
 September 27th, actress Sada Thompson; 28th, singer Olivia Newton-John; 29th, actress Madeline Kahn; 30th, singer Johnny Mathis; October 1st, actor Walter Matthau; 2nd, actor Moses Gunn; 3rd, singer Chubby Checker.

Broadway

late 40's when discrimination was still an ugly fact of life. "It was wrong of me," admits the singer, still sexy at 67. "But as a black woman I knew what I was up against. Also, I wanted to learn as much about singing from him as I could -- he always knew how to bring out the best in my voice.

He was a superb musician. He really taught me how to sing," she adds. Hayton died in 1972. But the well-respected musician didn't pass away without earning her undying devotion. "He didn't see me as black. He was completely blind to color -- all he cared about was music. He loved me.
