

Juanita Golden

Golden named to a new post

Daughter Juanita Golden was appointed as a desert security officer of the Ancient Egyptian Arabic Order Nobles Mystic Shrine of North and South America and its Jurisdictions Inc.

A licensed cosmetologist, Golden has been a member of Sethos Court No. 105 for the past 20 years and is the first daughter to be appointed as a security officer.

Golden was notified of the appointment by mail from the Imperial Deputy of the Desert.

Flora Alexander

Alexander wins a second term

Mrs. Flora Alexander has been re-elected president of the Nutrition Project Council. The council is an advisory body composed of representatives of the congregate nutrition meal sites in Forsyth County. The council meets quarterly except when pertinent business requires more frequent meetings.

The nutrition project in Forsyth County is funded by Title III of the Older Americans Act and is administered locally by the Experiment in Self-Reliance.

Anita Hairston

Hairston gets certification

Over the Rainbow Ltd., a Des Moines, Iowa-based color consulting firm, is pleased to announce that Anita Hairston of 1545 Gaston St. has successfully completed the training requirements to become a certified color consultant.

Color consultations are offered by individual appointments or in seminars for groups. Through a process of analyzing skin tones, hair and eye color, instruction is offered as to the most complimentary colors for each individual to wear. A custom-made color packet is provided -- one which is personalized for the individual client.

Anita is available for speaking engagements for clubs and churches in the area.
