G & S Cleaning Service, Inc.

"My name is Garland E. Washington, and I am President of G & S Cleaning Service in Winston-Salem. Through the years (since 1965) I have witnessed many changes in the underrated task of providing good janitorial service to businesses large and small.

Our employees are thoroughly screened before hiring. Upon employment they are constantly supervised and trained in any new techniques or chemical cleansing agents added to our line of work. They are also treated fairly and respectfully so that they take pride in the quality of their work.

Please remember, companies don't fail, people fail. Likewise, companies don't succeed, the people within them succeed. We are proud to say we have a lot of people doing just that in the G & S Company.

We know we have superior service and products, but our people are responsible for the growth of our company. That's why G & S is more than just another JANITORIAL SERVICE."
