

Rep. Stokes challenges diners at Benton

The Hanes Memorial CME Church afforded community and church members an evening with a distinguished lawmaker, the Honorable Louis Stokes, United States Congressman from the 21st Congressional District of Ohio.

At a dinner meeting held at the M.C. Benton Convention Center on Friday night, Oct. 20, the Ohio congressman made his presence felt in an unforgettable way when he challenged the group with his vibrant message on the topic "Whither Goest Thou?"

Unique in his rich background of experiences, the congressman is currently president of the Black Caucus Foundation, chairman of the House Sub-committee on Appropriations, a member of the Executive Board of Americans for Democratic Action, a member of the American Bar Association, a member of the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence, and chairman of the Committee on Official Conduct. He is an active member of the St. Paul AME Zion Church in Cleveland, Ohio. He is also a member of many organizations, including the Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity.

Congressman Stokes was extended greetings from the Honorable Wayne A. Corpening, mayor of Winston-Salem; Alderman Vivian Burke, who extended greetings from Governor James Hunt; N.C. Congressman Steve Neal, Dr. Jerry Drayton, representing Baptist ministers; Dr. Jerry Quick, representing Methodist ministers; and the Rev. Carlton G. Eversly, representing all other pastors.

Women's group membership up

The membership drive has been a special interest for the Women's Fellowship of Wentz Memorial. At a social meeting on Sunday, there were reports indicating an unexpected increase in membership. Copies of a program were passed to each member, giving a complete record of activities planned for 1984-85.

Members present were Mesdames Sandra G. Blair, Elizabeth W. Martin, Nina B. Steele, Imogene B. Ellis, Frances R. Coble, Olivia B. Brown, Bessie H. Allen, Bessie J. Bright, Flonnie T. Anderson, Lemuel R. Boulware, Eddis Reinhardt and Naomi C. McLean. Mrs. Reinhardt, the president, presided and capped the social hour with a delicious repast. Monthly meetings are on second Sundays of the month at 4 p.m.

Blair attends COG meeting

Dr. Marion R. Blair, pastor of Wentz Memorial United Church of Christ, attended the annual meeting of the Western North Carolina Association recently held at First Church in Salisbury. Members present for the sessions were Mrs. Frances R. Coble, church clerk; Mrs. Bessie H. Allen, Sunday school superintendent; W. Bruce Foriest, deacon; and Mrs. Lemuel Boulware.

younger Kitt says. "Now we're very close, she sent me to the best schools, and I know how popular she is around the world because she lets me travel a lot. I believe I can make it as a model, and first chance I get I'll get back to Columbia, where I was studying sociology, but I feel big things are coming my way."

Dudley Flood at New Bethel

New Bethel Baptist Church at 1016 N. Trade St. celebrated its annual Laymen's Day program at morning worship services on Sunday, Oct. 21.

The speaker for the program was Dr. Dudley Flood, state assistant superintendent of public instruction in Raleigh. Dr. Flood, who has been the Laymen's Day Speaker for eight consecutive years, spoke on the scripture David 51:10: Create in me a clean heart and renew a right spirit in me.
