

Franklin is guest speaker at tea

Denise Franklin, the Newscenter 12 co-anchor, was the guest speaker at the Annual Rainbow Tea on Oct. 28 at New Bethel Baptist Church at 1016 N. Trade St.

Franklin delivered a talk on the topic "Handling The Task." She said we all need to use our most important weapon -- our right to vote.

The church's Young Adult Missionaries have sponsored the annual anniversary celebration since 1962. Members of the missionary circle work to raise money which will benefit state as well as foreign missions. Church sponsors say the program was very successful this year.

Ms. Hortense B. Dunlap was cited at the tea for her outstanding work with the Young Adult Missionaries. Others receiving awards were Mrs. Clara Hayes and Mrs. Mary Foote.

The music for the program was rendered by Elder John Heath of Ambassador's Cathedral and Ms. Audrey Brown, Miss New Bethel.

Missionaries pay tribute to Mrs. Daniels

A special tribute was paid to Mrs. Bronnie H. Daniels, past state director and local director of the Forsyth County Young Adult Missionary Department, on Sunday, Oct. 28, at Mount Olive Baptist Church.

Mrs. Daniels was recognized for 20 years of service to the state young adult department and for continued support of the local young adult department.

Mrs. Daniels presented a plaque and an attache case from the young adults of the Forsyth County Missionary Union. She also was given other gifts from the senior missionary departments of New Bethel, United Metropolitan, Galilee, Zion Memorial, St. Stephens, Waightown, Mt. Zion, Emmanuel, Friendship, Union Baptist, Shiloh and Morning Star Baptist churches.
