

New Faith Chapel Holiness elects 1985 officers

Church officers for the New Faith Chapel Holiness Church were elected during its Fourth General Convention held Nov. 12-18.

Overseer Mary Montgomery was elected the national missionary president. Other national officers elected were evangelist Jeannie Alford, national missionary vice president; trustee Christopher Brinson, national youth president; Ms. Beulah Bynum, national educational president; and Ms. Louise Montgomery, national educational vice president.

Mrs. Brenda Tate and Ms. Amelia Ervin were elected church mothers and Mother Dorothy Felder was elected to the Mother Board.

Among those ordained during the conference were Bishop Joseph Brinson Sr., Overseer Calvin Campbell, State Elder Reginald Eldridge, State Elder Darryl McConnell, Deacon Jerry Ervin and Deacon Vincent Glover.

Mother Amelia Ervin and Mother Dorothy Felder were elected to the trustee board.

The convention also chartered two new churches: Holy Ghost Temple in Buffalo, N.Y., and New Faith Chapel Holiness Church No.2.

Bishop Lawrence S. Tate, the general overseer, presided during the sessions.

Ministers' Wives schedule Jan. 1 Christmas dinner

The Interdenominational Ministers' Wives Alliance met at Galilee Baptist Church with Mrs. W.C. Hay as the hostess.

The devotional service was led by Mrs. Viola Robinson and contained a Christmas theme.

Mrs. Magalene Samuels reported that the annual Christmas dinner for the members' families will be held at the Hyatt House on Jan. 1.

Mrs. Butler asked for the report from the nominating committee. The officers for the next year will be Mrs. Jessie Marie Hodge, president; Mrs. Eloise Smith, first vice president; Mrs. Althea Jones, second vice president; Mrs. Mattie Walker, recording secretary; Mrs. Emmalene Goodwin, assistant recording secretary; Mrs. Fannie Bonham, treasurer; Mrs. Mary Coleman, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Bronnie Daniels, assistant corresponding secretary. Mrs. Mildred Leak installed the officers.

Mrs. Hodge asked the group for its cooperation during the next two years and promised her best effort to carry the group forward. A note of thanks was given to the outgoing officers for a job well done.

After the business meeting, the group shared dinner.
