Elks hold regional meeting at Hyatt

Winston-Salem and the Twin City Antlers of Camel City Elks Lodge and Garden of Iris Temple hosted the annual conclave of the Southern Division Antlered Guard Department of The Improved Protective Order of Elks of The World on Dec. 6-9 at the Hyatt Regency Hotel.

The Antlered Guard is the military department of the Elks organization. Its members participate in parades, provide security at various meetings and assist in any emergency that might occur.

The Southern Division includes Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, North and South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and Nassau, Bahamas.

A banquet was held on Friday evening and the king and queen of the Southern Division Guard was crowned. On Saturday morning, a parade was held starting at Fourth and Popular streets, and proceeding down Fourth, Liberty and First streets.

Participants from out-of-state marching units participated in the parade. The Parkland High School band, the Patterson Avenue YMCA drill teams and the Glade Street YMCA also participated in the parade.

The conclave concluded with the members attending church together on Sunday morning.

Correction

The Nov. 22 issue of the Chronicle incorrectly stated that Pamela McKoy, Denise Hill, Clara Peay, Rudy Perry and Darel Jones were all employees of Conrad's Hair Designs.

Jones is the manager and Perry is an employee at Metro Beauty-Rama in the Ogburn Station Shopping Center.

Peay is a new employee at Beauty World in the Jetway Shopping Center.

Hill and McKoy, formerly an employee at Beauty World, are employed at Conrad's Hair Designs on New Walkertown Road.

The Chronicle regrets the error.

A VERY SPECIAL GIFT FOR YOUR
 GIRL

Lovely! That's what she will say of this tunic pajamas in shimmering satiny polyester. The tunic top ties to one side. Frothy lace traces the three-quarter length sleeves and yoke. The pant has an elasticized waist. Best of all, the color is a lush amethyst. Have it in small, medium or large sizes.
