Pender wins local nursing sorority scholarship

Mrs. Jean Pender was the recent winner of the Chi Eta Phi Nursing Sorority Scholarship. Pender was presented the scholarship by the local chapter, Chi Chi, during their annual banquet.

The nursing sorority is an organization of registered nurses and nursing students. The organization was founded on Oct. 16, 1932, by Mrs. Aliene C. Ewell, with the assistance of 11 other nurses. The charter chapter was organized at Freeman's Hospital in Washington, with the double purpose of elevating the plane of nursing and increasing interest in the field of nursing.

Pender is a senior nursing student at WSSU. She is not only a student but a wife and mother.

Present at the scholarship reception was her husband Tommy Pender; their four sons, ranging in age from 10 to 2; her parents,

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Blackman; her sister, Timike Blackman; the director of the WSSU Nursing Department, Mrs. Sadie Webster, other faculty members of the nursing department and the sorors of Chi Chi.

After graduation, Pender plans to enroll in the master's program at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro to prepare herself to enter the field of midwife nursing. Pender is an honor student at WSSU, named to Who's Who in America, vice president of senior nursing class and president of the Student Nursing Association.
