...der of the United Supreme
...ouncil Southern Jurisdiction,
... Bennett.

Bennett dedicated his speech to
...ent: civil rights gains in
...merica.

"For 246 years we were in legal
...ery," Bennett said. "Those
...ere the darkest years in black
...merican history."

"During that time, it was
...inst the law in some states for
...black man and a white man to
...in the same room," Bennett

...d. But even through that period,
...cks raised families and even
...ered businesses, Bennett said.
... Bennett said the future of
...cks in America is totally up to
...ck people.

"These new tools are now
...dy to use," he said. "We have
...ck judges, mayors and govern-
...ent workers. A beginning has
...en made -- but it's only a begin-
...g."

Bennett said blacks should let
...ing stop their progress in
...merica. "These tools I speak
...ut were not given to us but
...e bought at a high price of
...ah and suffering," he said.

After Bennett's speech, the
...asons and Loyal Ladies
...ented awards to individual
...embers for their achievements.

Among those recipients were:
...oyal Lady Phyllis Martin, the
...trius Dr. G. Wesley Allen,

...e Illustrious S.J. Bennett,
...oyal Lady Lottie Carson, the Il-
...trius William A. Clement,

...e Illustrious Ernest Morine,
...oyal Lady Carolene Morine,
...oyal Lady Mary McDowell, the

...trius Clyde Alexander, the
...trius Howard L. Ward,
...oyal Lady Rosa Mitchell and

...oyal Lady Bertha Ferguson.
...The Illustrious Art L. Moore
...named the 1985 Mason of the

...ar.

The three-day event included a
...rtial arts program on Friday,
...rch 8, with the Winston-Salem
...ate University choir, the St.
...phens Baptist Church choir
...d vocalist Willard Tanner per-
...forming.

In addition, the Masons and
...oyal Ladies were treated to a
...ashion show on Saturday,
