Penn, U.S. Air Force, Colorado Springs, Colo., the bride had Mrs. George Mickel as her mother of honor. The best man was Harry Reynolds of Winston-Salem. Witnesses were Warren J. Smith

People On The Move

Davis elected to notary society

Claude Harrison Davis II of Winston-Salem has been elected to membership in the American Society of Notaries, a national nonprofit organization for notary publics. Davis is the owner of Davis Tax Notary Service at 2726 Fond-Road, N.E. in Winston-Salem. He has been a notary since 1964.

John L. Moore III has accepted a position as associate director of development with the Los Angeles Actor's Theatre (the Los Angeles Theatre Center) in Los Angeles, Calif.

Moore resigned his position as director of development with the North Carolina Shakespeare Festival effective March 14.

In his new post, he will concentrate on government, foundation and private funding sources of national scope.

"It has been a rewarding experience for me in many respects with the Festival; however, I look forward to the tremendous challenge at LAAT with great fervor and excitement," said the Winston-Salem native.

The Los Angeles Actor's Theatre is a multi-cultural, nationally oriented professional theatre company. In the fall of 1985, the Company will open a major performing arts facility (the Los Angeles Theatre Center) in downtown Los Angeles to serve local, regional, national and international arts attractions. Moore is scheduled to be in Los Angeles by April 1.

The Nature Science Center recently announced the election of eight new members to its board of trustees.

Among the eight selected for these positions are Alexander Beatty, assistant city manager; Myron Chenault, vice chancellor for development at Winston-Salem State University, and Margaret Tennille, former State House representative.
