you've been called away from the blackboard or your desk. To put it in the local context, that you remember your beginnings, "She was a lookin' girl for some niggamess up like that." With a little more, you've got a conviction.

we have the image of a well-meaning, D.A. Tisdale said at the time of the assault that the hair was in knots. That's an interpretation of Hunt's words that's absolutely meaningless. Even the Klan hardly ever has knotty-headed you-know-whats anymore.

you're trying hard to be as non-racist as possible, it's a good excuse to condemn a man whom there's no credible evidence against. Brother Tisdale is a smart D.A., even if he's a person that paid off the courts. eye-witnesses aren't always reliable. We all want a future where we've made our home.

we're sad for America that it doesn't look like there's a future where legal lynching outside the South. Perhaps Winston-Salem should get out of its past and move on.

Editor:

at the Greater Triad March of Dimes want to thank you for your support, your time and your talent in helping us in the fight to conquer birth defects. We are acutely aware of the fact that without the support of our local media (newspaper, television and radio) our ability to raise the funds needed for this most important cause would be greatly diminished. We recognize the great service you perform and that it amounts to many, many thousands of dollars given freely to our community. You are truly special ... and truly appreciated.

As a non-profit health organization, we are of course unable to return any direct monetary benefit to you, but we can and do make sure that we let other businesses in the community know that in helping us, you achieve a very high positive profile in the community.

As you are probably aware, our chapter serves a 10-county area: Alamance, Caswell, Davidson, Davie, Forsyth, Guilford, Rockingham, Stokes, Surry and Yadkin counties. We have tried to consolidate our chapters into major media marketing areas in order to serve the community better and make it easier for you to work with us. We recognize that you have thousands of requests annually for public service from various and sundry organizations that sometimes have four and five chapters in a given area. We are trying to attain the goal of making our requests worth your time and ours ....

Again, thank you for your wonderful contribution to our cause.

The Urban League, however, is pointing in a direction that we think is very important.

the only way of proving manhood.

That's sad.

We applaud the Urban League's approach. Teaching a boy what it is to be a man is important work. It's contagious, too. Before you know it, building a healthy family environment could lead to a dynamic community -- and who knows what else.

the Board of Aldermen they are doing with its money," said Jones. "I feel I was more or less a scapegoat. I was set up to fail."

In a work order for each house, said Jones, the city required that each exterior be painted. But Jones said he put vinyl siding on each house.

"If I do anything, it has to be A-No. 1," said Jones. "I didn't have to do it. I didn't have to put on the vinyl siding, but I did. I decided to do it."

"What I did was one of the greatest things done in East Winston," added Jones. "At least I gave 11 families a decent place to live."
