

Slater alumni chapter holds last meeting of 1985

The Slater Chapter of the Winston-Salem State University Alumni Association held its last meeting of 1985 on Saturday, Dec. 14, at the home of Clara Nesby.

The meeting opened with Christmas carols and an invocation by Thurmond Ford. Chapter President Janie Thomas presided over the meeting; members also enjoyed a Christmas lunch.

The last meeting of each year is held to give the members an opportunity to pledge their dedication to supporting the objectives of the alumni association.

Other members attending were

Luna Fields, Louise W. King, Delores Childs, Alberta Singletary, Maggie Rucker, Doretha Edmonds, Mary Clanton, Romelia Mason, Bessie Beatty, Helen L. Gwyn, Helen Falls, Eddie E. Jarrell and James R. Jarrell of Greensboro.

Guests included Sylvia Ford, Kathleen Williamson, Lillie Scott, Patsy Ann Shore, Sandra Miles and Ernestine Cathcart.

Kappa Alpha Psi brothers display holiday spirit

The Winston-Salem Alumni Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity held a Christmas party at Winston Lake YMCA on Saturday, Dec. 14.

The party was held for 18 young people between the ages of 6 and 12 who are affiliated with the Big Brothers Association of Forsyth County.

A visit from Santa Claus highlighted the party, and the youngsters also enjoyed games and holiday treats.

Kappa brothers attending included Donnie Hilliard, John Polite, Oliver Wheeler Sr., Walter Funderburk, Al White, Joe Yarborough, Arthur Payne, Jerry Siler, James Spruill and L.M. Bell.

Stephens is active in several organizations, including the A&T Alumni Club in Detroit, the NAACP and the Metropolitan Schoolmen's Club.

Michigan's sub-zero temperatures and high crime rates in the schools have prompted Stephens to consider moving back to his native Winston-Salem. He says he hopes to return within a year on a "permanent basis."

Stephens spends much of his spare time working with student athletes after school hours. A dedicated teacher, he says, "I believe every young person should stay in school. Education is the key to success. ..."

The Alta Vista Flower Club held its last meeting of 1985 on Thursday, Dec. 19, at the home of Odessa Perry.

Mrs. Perry and Teretha Millner hosted the affair and opened the meeting with a prayer. The meeting agenda included program plans for 1986, and all the current officers were re-installed.
