Edwin C. Hamlin promoted at Wachovia

Edwin C. Hamlin has been elected banking officer in the Asset-Based Financing Group, and Charles E. Robertson has been elected data processing officer in the Information Processing Group at Wachovia Bank and Trust in Winston-Salem.

Hamlin joined Wachovia in 1984 and is a senior field analyst in commercial finance.

A graduate of Catawba College, he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Hamlin of Eden.

Robertson joined Wachovia in 1972 and is coordinator for information services. A native of Yanceyville, he graduated from the Automation Machine Training Center in Kansas City, Mo.

Robertson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Robertson of Stoneville.

Wendy Shena Snow, a senior at R.J. Reynolds High School, has been elected Shorthand Student of the Year by the school's vocational education department.

She will compete in the Future Business Leaders of America competition in the shorthand division at Thomasville High School along with other students in the North Carolina School System.

Miss Snow is an honor roll student, a member of the National Honor Society, the Spanish Honor Society, the Lady Demon Service Club, the Future Business Leaders of America and treasurer of the senior class.

information call Pamela Murrell at 722-0425.

• "The Contract," a drama by North Carolina Black Repertory Company resident playwright Nathan Ross Freeman, is being cast for its "Southern Premiere," to be performed in Winston-Salem April 11 through 13. The company needs experienced actors to fill the very demanding roles that make up the cast of two males, ages 28 to 35 and 35 to 50, and one female, 25 or over. Audition is by appointment only. For more information call the NCBRC at 723-7907.

• Mid-Eastern America Enterprises Inc. will sponsor "Showcase '86" March 29 at the M.C. Benton Convention Center. The company will be taking applications for the modeling and talent divisions of the competition Friday, Feb. 28. Contestants in "Showcase '86" will be viewed by talent scouts, agents and representatives from New York City, CBS and "Starsearch." For more information call Horace Fulton at 722-9400, Ext. 252.

The Chronicle welcomes Community Calendar notices. Announcements should be concise and typed or neatly printed. They should include the day, time, place and sponsors of the event, plus a number to call for additional information. Announcements should be addressed to the Winston-Salem Chronicle Community Calendar, P.O. Box 3154, Winston-Salem, N.C. 27102. The deadline for announcements is Monday at 5:30 p.m.
