smallest doll, the ugliest doll, the most outstanding doll and the most unusual doll.

Evelyn Brevard was selected as having the prettiest doll, Ella Williams for the most unique doll, and Dorothy Williams had the largest doll.

Myrtle Wall won for having the only white doll.

Judges for the contest were Frank Brevard, Fenner Manning, Walter Ford and Hilton Scott.

Other members attending the meeting were Mrs. Scott and Benny Blackshear.

Mable Walker is the club's president. ...

In its regular monthly meeting at the home of Vivien King Bright, the Book Club of Today observed both Valentine's Day and Black History Month.

Barbara Phillips presided at the meeting.

In opening devotions, Annie Hairston pointed out the importance of being big in heart and spirit.

Following a short business session, Louise Smith reviewed the books "Family Album" by Danielle Steele, "In One Minute for Myself" by Dr. Spencer Johnson and "Black Americana" by Richard A. Long.

At the conclusion of the review session, members exchanged heart sister gifts in honor of Valentine's Day.

Dr. Virginia Newell spoke to the group; her topic was "Why Black History Month?"

In her address, Dr. Newell stressed that the month is a means of helping blacks develop a greater sense of worth and self-respect. She also said black history highlights the contributions Afro-Americans have made to the country.

Members attending were Martha Atkins, Geneva Brown, Bronnie Daniels, Emmalene Goodwin, Barbara Hayes, Maybelle Hedgley, Aleise Jessup, Wilma Lassiter, Ivey McDaniel, Selena Nichols, Edna Revels, Catherine Simmons and Marian Wooten. ...

he is finished with the matter for now.

Tisdale said last week that he expects Miss Oakley to plead guilty.

As for the district attorney, Assistant Police Chief George L. Sweat said Wednesday that the department has no plans, as far as he knew, to seek another warrant for Tisdale if Miss Oakley is found guilty. Sweat said it will be up to Miss Setzer whether she will seek the warrant again.

CALL NOW FOR FARE CUTS SO DRASTIC THEY WEREN'T READY AT PRESS TIME.

Right now, you can save up to 75% off regular fares on Piedmont Airlines. Because we're cutting our Ultimate Super Savers lower than ever for travel through May 22.

Though we couldn't tell you the fares to any particular cities at press time, we can tell you that they are no more than $119 and no less than $29 each way, depending on your destination.

But you have to move fast. Because these fares are so low, there is limited seating. And a 30-day advance purchase requirement.*

So don't wait, or you'll miss an opportunity for these savings. Call your travel agent or Piedmont in Greensboro at 275-2801, in High Point at 883-9146 and in Winston-Salem at 768-5171. We'll give you the facts over the phone that we didn't have time to put in black and white.

PIEDMONT AIRLINES

*Other restrictions apply. These new low fares do not apply to Piedmont's Florida cities. Ask about our other low Florida fares.
