Hayes to enter Central's HOF

Winston-Salem State Coach Bill Hayes is among seven persons to be inducted into the North Carolina Central University Sports Hall of Fame next Saturday.

Hayes, who has a 10-year record of 77-33-2 at WSSU, will be joined by former NCCU football Coach George L. Qulett, St. Augustine's basketball coach and Athletic Director Harvey standouts Paul Winslow and Herman Mathews, pioneer women's Coach Katie Kelly Martin and the former chairman of the university's athletic committee, the late Lindsey A. Merritt.

Hayes, who has coached at WSSU since 1976 after serving as an assistant at Wake Forest, was a three-time small college all-America for the Eagles' football team in 1962-64. A graduate of Durham Hillside High School, Hayes played center and linebacker on NCCU teams that won two Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association titles under Coach Herman Riddick. Hayes won all-CIAA honors three years in a row.

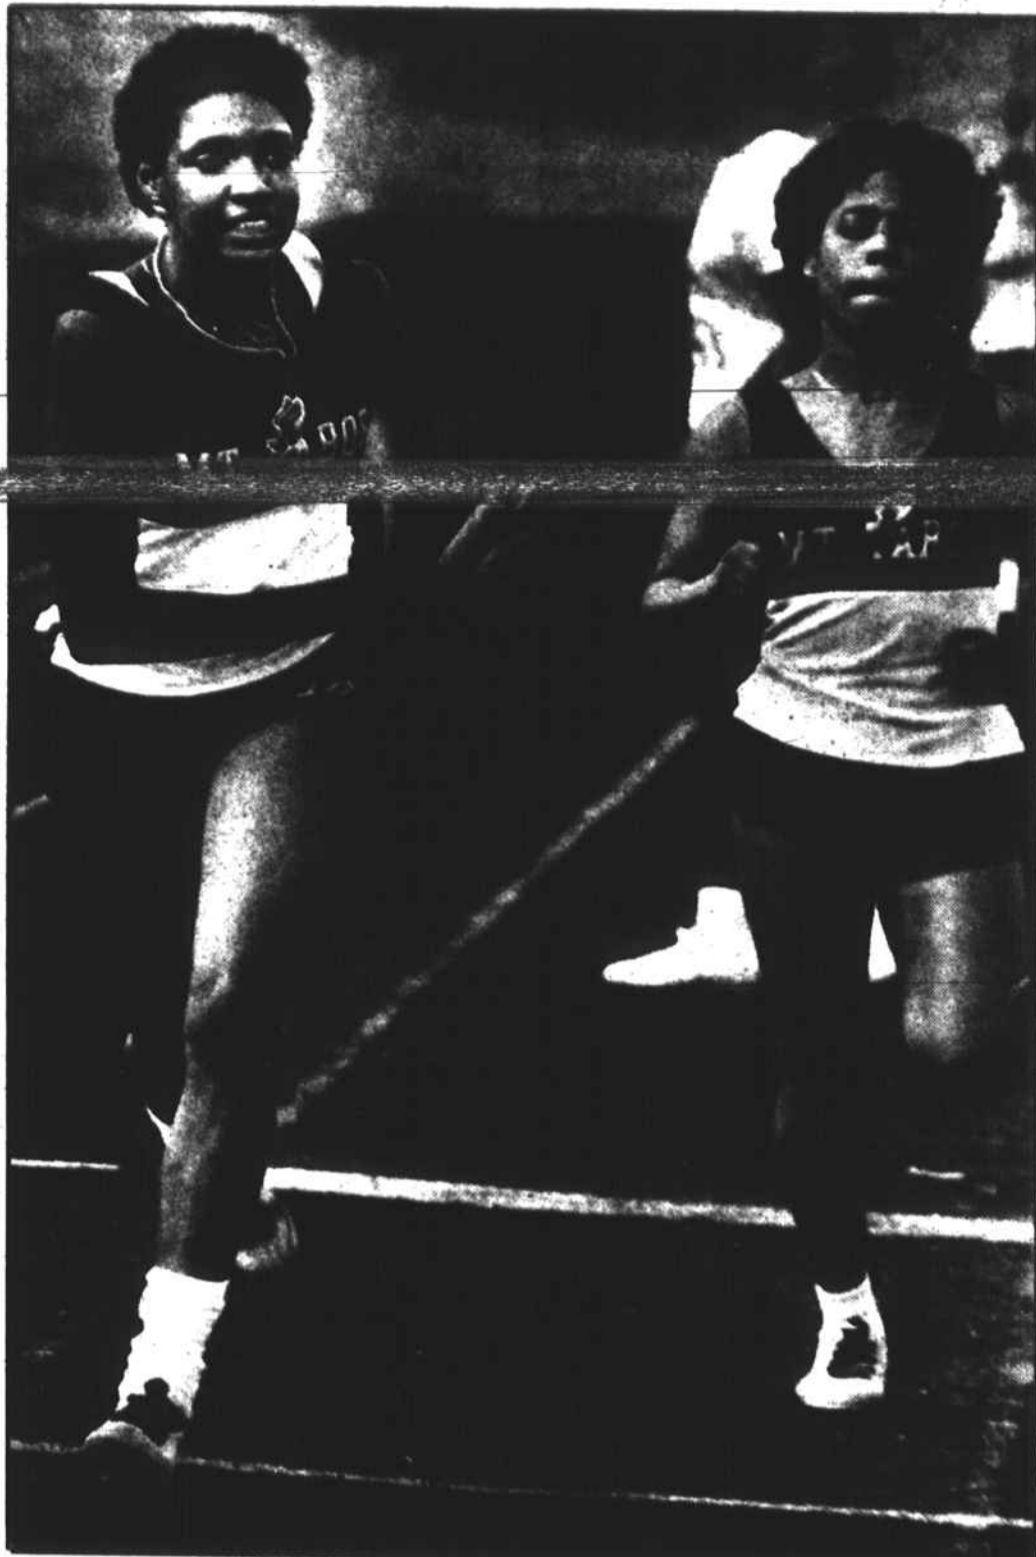

At Hillside, he was a football and track and field star. He was named to the all-state football team his senior year and won five individual track and field state titles -- three in the discus and two in the shot put.

Hayes is responsible for making WSSU, once mired in football obscurity, into a perennial power in the CIAA. His teams have won two CIAA championships and the last three Southern Division titles. More than 30 of his players have gone on to professional careers.

Quiett, a graduate of St. Augustine's, coached the NCCU football team from 1968-72. His winning percentage of .734 is the best in the history of the program.

Quiett, now a member of the NCCU physical education faculty, was CIAA Coach of the Year in 1969, NAIA District 26 Coach of the Year in '69 and '72, and NCAA Division II Coach of the Year in 1972. Twelve of his players were all-Americans and 36 all-CIAA selections.

Hearthley played for Central from 1951-55 and was all-CIAA his junior and senior seasons. The Eagles won the CIAA title in 1953-54. He also was co-captain of the 1954-55 basketball team. He has a record of 174-153 as St. Augustine's basketball coach.

Winslow, a three-time all-CIAA selection, played for the Green Bay Packers from 1960-62 before sustaining a career-ending injury. He was a strong student, making the honor roll six of eight semesters.

Mathews played quarterback from 1966-69 and his career passing and total offense records stood for nearly 15 years. Mathews, whose favorite receiver at Central was Julian Martin, played for the Bramalea Satellites of the Ontario Rugby Football Union, leading the team to a 12-1-1 record in 1970. He retired at the end of the next season and has worked in television advertising in Raleigh and Durham since then.

Katie Kelly Martin was officially inducted into the NCCU Hall of Fame last year as a woman pioneer, but her residence was unknown and she did not attend the induction ceremonies.

Merritt, who died in 1984 at the age of 53 in Dallas, had been sports information assistant and sports statistician for the Eagles as a student. He later worked as a Please see page B12
