Greensboro, which once housed the MEAC tourney, is vacant next year, since the Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament will be at the Capital Centre in Landover, Md.

Distinguished Aggie

Congratulations are in order to North Carolina A&T tennis player Drew Berry, who received a special award last Friday night at the Aggies' awards banquet in Greensboro.

Berry was honored as the school's Academic Athlete of the Year. The industrial engineering major has a 3.86 grade-point average.

A&T Cage Schedule

North Carolina A&T will play two of its old CIAA rivals in Virginia Union and Norfolk State, the two best teams in that league the past few seasons, in '86-87.

Coach Don Corbett also said his team will open with a home date against Detroit.

Alexander Second

Hampton University freshman Debra Alexander finished second in the triple jump at the CIAA Track and Field Championships two weeks ago.

The former state prep champion from East Forsyth jumped 39 feet, 7½ inches to finish second to teammate Jan Antoine, who jumped 40-7¾.

St. Augustine's Ann Hall was third at 39-7. Hall is a Reynolds High School alumna.

Baseball Notes

Tennessee State alumnus Nate Snell was recalled last week by the Baltimore Orioles after starting the season at triple-A Rochester. Snell replaced reliever Tippy Martinez, who was put on the 21-day disabled list complaining of dizziness ....

Former Southern University standout Vida Blue registered career win No. 200 last week. The San Francisco left-hander became the 85th pitcher in major-league history to reach that plateau. However, Blue was put on the disabled list this week after suffering a pulled hamstring.

Bulldog Spring Game

James Miller ran for 160 yards on 12 carries to lead the Blue team to a 14-0 win over the Garnet in South Carolina State's

"If I'm offered the (Jackson State) job, I'm gone. I want people to know what I'm up against at Valley."

-- Lafayette Stribling,
Mississippi Valley Coach

The job became available when Paul Covington announced his retirement at the end of the 1985-86 season.

"If I'm offered the job, I'm gone," Stribling said. He added that the MVSU job "isn't a bed of roses. I want people to know what I'm up against at Valley."

Stribling, in his third year at the Itta Bena, Miss., school, led the Delta Devils to a 20-11 mark last season, including the championship of the Southwestern Athletic Conference Tournament. Mississippi Valley lost to Duke 85-78 in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

spring football game two weeks ago.

Miller, who is fully recovered from a shoulder separation suffered against Bethune-Cookman last season, had touchdown runs of 60 and 67 yards. Backfield mate Anthony Burgess totaled 52 yards.

"Miller was exceptional on the outside," said Coach Dennis Thomas, who watched his first spring game at the Orangeburg, S.C., school. "Burgess ran tough up the middle on dives and short traps."

Thomas, who came to S.C. State from Alcorn State, was disappointed with a Blue passing game that netted only 14 yards.

"We didn't work a lot on our pass and this was by design," he said. "We are not going to depend on the pass to win. But we believe we can throw the football and I have been impressed with tight end Robert Tyler and wide receivers Eric Smith and Edwin Glass."

Thomas was pleased with the defensive play of the Blue team, which held the Garnet squad to 75 total yards. "But we are light years away from where we need to be in order to be a winner," he said.

Thomas Davis, who suffered back-to-back losing seasons but still had a seven-season record of 53-25-1.

Alcorn Narrows List

Alcorn State has narrowed the list of contenders for the vacant head football coach-athletic director post to three.

The finalists include Theo Danzy, Alcorn's linebacker coach, Willie McGowan, the defensive line coach, and James Brooks, assistant director of the Mississippi High School Activities Association.

The school was expected to choose among the three by Thursday.

Among the rejected applicants were Braves basketball Coach Davey Whitney and former Tennessee State assistant head football Coach Joe Gilliam.

The new man will replace Marino Casem, who is moving to Southern University, where he will be athletic director.

Stribling To Jackson?

Mississippi Valley State's Lafayette Stribling, who guided the Delta Devil basketball team to the first round of the NCAA Tournament, is interested in the vacant Jackson State job.

the Triad will join forces May 31 and June 1 at Civitan Park for the third annual Softball Marathon for Easter Seals.

Teams composed of local individuals will participate in the event by securing pledges and playing against other teams of similar ability.

Proceeds from the softball marathon will help support Easter Seals Service for physically handicapped children and adults in North Carolina, including equipment purchases and loans, speech and language therapy clinics, a stroke support network and residential camping opportunities at Camp Easter-in-the-Pines.

Anyone interested in entering the softball marathon should call the North Carolina Easter Seals Society at 1-800-722-0652.

Boys Club Exhibition

The Salvation Army Boys Club staff and volunteers played an exhibition basketball game recently against the staff of WNRW-TV in Gaines Center at Winston-Salem State.

Proceeds were donated to send Winston-Salem representatives to the Southeast Regional Keystone Meeting to be held this week in Chattanooga, Tenn.

NAACP Golf

The second annual NAACP Golf Tournament gets under way Saturday morning with a 7:30 start at Winston Lake Golf Course.

Registration was extended until Friday at 6 p.m., according to Tournament Chairman Jim Conrad.

Conrad said he expected to have a regular start on Saturday and a shotgun start Sunday.

There are four flights for men and two each for seniors and women. Trophies will be awarded to the winner of each flight.

Proceeds go to the local chapter of the NAACP.

Course conditions are good at Winston Lake, according to first-

What's a big convention like NNPA Doing in a little city like Winston-Salem?

For the first time in its 40-year history, the National Newspaper Publishers Association (NNPA) has chosen North Carolina for its annual convention, June 18-21, 1986.

Why Winston-Salem? Because our little city has a spirit of cooperation and progress that deserves special attention. Only in this unique community could the Winston-Salem Chronicle become one of the nation's leading black newspapers.

Unique? You bet! Winston-Salem's black market, if incorporated as a separate city, would rank 10th in population among all North Carolina cities and boasts of more than $200,000,000 in spendable income annually.

Proud? You bet! The Winston-Salem Chronicle is the Twin City's award-winning weekly, claiming 44 state and national awards since 1983, including the 1984 Best Black Newspaper in the nation and the North Carolina Press Association's 1984 and 1985 Best Weekly in the state.

The NNPA will bring more than 300 of the nation's leading black publishers and newspaper executives to our city. The Chronicle will publish our Convention Journal as a tabloid insert in the June 19 regular edition.

Share in the pride ... this is an honor for Winston-Salem, and your ad in the Chronicle's Convention Journal will be an excellent way for your business to share in this celebration. Be a part of this major event. Call us and reserve space in this keepsake issue of the Chronicle.

Call Ernest Pitt, Publisher, Julie Perry, Ad Manager, or Art Blue, Sales Representative, at (919) 722-8628.

June 19 Issue: Space Reservation and New Ad Make-Up by June 6, Camera-Ready Copy by June 13.
