

Local Omegas conclude year with $4,000 in scholarship awards

The Psi Phi Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity will hold its final business meeting of the 1985-86 year at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, June 10, at the Delta Fine Arts Center.

New officers will be installed, and preparations will be made for the fraternity's Grand Conclave in Washington this summer.

Action will also be taken at the June 10 meeting on the chapter's summer campership for pre-teen boys.

The meeting will be the chapter's first meeting since its annual spring formal held at the Benton Convention Center May 9. At that social event, more than 700 guests of the fraternity were treated to an evening of dance entertainment and a champagne toast. Those in attendance also witnessed the awarding of more than $4,000 in Psi Phi Chapter scholarships.

High school seniors Bronald Johnson and Darryl Kennedy received $1,000 each to pursue their college studies.

Derrick Brown, also a high school senior, received $500 in scholarship aid.

A donation of $1,500 was presented to Winston-Salem State University for deposit in Psi Phi Chapter's scholarship-endowment at the university. The award to WSSU completes an earlier pledge the chapter made to generate funds for a $10,000 award.

Newly inducted members of the fraternity will attend the June meeting. The recent inductees are Greg Davis, a local attorney; Harold Holmes and Dwayne Wright, Wachovia bankers; Alexander Richardson, a local schoolteacher, and Reginald Pretty, a graduate of Babcock School of Management.

Their membership in the fraternity was accomplished with guidance and supervision from Robert McCollum, who will also accompany them to their first national conclave in July.

Although Psi Phi Chapter will be in recess during July and August, plans for the 1986-87 year will be formulated in executive session during the summer.

The chapter, which currently has a membership of 75 brothers, has renewed its commitment to local objectives and national principles of the fraternity.

At its recent district meeting in Greenville, S.C., Psi Phi Chapter was cited as the runner-up for Chapter of the Year/Activity Book Winner. Present plans call for the chapter to be involved in the pursuit of top honors for next year.

James A. Rousseau is the retiring basileus of the chapter. James Franklin is the basileus-elect.

thinks her work has improved.

"Even though I haven't seen an episode of 'The Cosby Show' in two months, I actually think I've done better in some of my subjects," she said.

"It's easy to let it (performing) interfere with you," she continued. "But being in that kind of atmosphere makes you more disciplined. You know unless you do your homework at the theater, it's not going to get done."

Ms. Davis does not plan to let "The Pajama Game" be her last Little Theatre production. She said she would like to audition for a part in "Oliver Twist" next season. She added that she may audition for a part in the Little Theatre's next production, which will be "Peter Pan."

Being in "The Pajama Game" is an experience Ms. Davis said she won't soon forget. "You get to see people you have watched in previous productions," she said. "You get to see how human they are. It's a good experience. If you had no talent, you really would do a good job just because of the energy everyone else has."
