people can make a difference. We plan to have an impact on worldwide issues."

The sorority currently participates in the Africare project and sponsors the "Adopt-a-Village" program. Under the program, Alpha Kappa Alpha chapters designate funds for a particular village in Africa. The funds, the delegates say, are used to enhance the quality of life in that village.

Citing another of the sorority's recent projects, Mrs. Wheeler says the organization's membership contributed to the Hunger Bank. Sorority members gave up one day's lunch and donated the cost of the lunch to the Hunger Bank.

The sorority's other national programs include the Foreign Travel Grant, which provides an opportunity for undergraduates to tour foreign countries, the Domestic Travel Grant, which is held during off-boule years and allows high school students to tour selected sites in this country, and the Leadership Fellows program, which sponsors seminars and training programs for students.

These programs and others, Ms. Wilson says, illustrate that the sorority's membership has remained true to the principles on which it was founded.

"We have an historical beginning," she says. "We've never strayed from the visions of our founders. They were very perceptive, and we can see what they had in mind. I think we're on the right track."

Mrs. Wheeler says the sorority has managed to keep current with the needs of the times and at the same time preserve the values of its founders.

"One thing I feel is unique about Alpha Kappa Alpha is that we are responsive to today's needs, but we still maintain the goals set forth by our founders. We're looking toward the 21st century, and we're keeping their vision alive," she says.

The boule will feature appearances by Barbara Proctor, a Chicago businesswoman, Earl Graves, Anita Whitaker and entertainers Marilyn McCoo and Billy Davis Jr.

Other local delegates will be Velma Friende, Annie Hairston, Helen Hairston, Olivia Morgan, Dorothy Wyncoff, Vivian Burke and Inez Geraldts as an alternate.

Members of the 98-member graduate chapter scheduled to attend the boule in Detroit are Viola Sharpe, Desdemona Lewis, Dolores Phillips and Barbara Phillips.

Officers in the Winston-Salem graduate chapter are Gloria Gore, Sandra Armstrong, Brenda Hodges, Mertice Williams, Bernice Davenport, Patricia Jeffries, Andrea Bush, Mary Andrews and Wilhelmina Lash.
