Betty Walker presented songs of the '60s with Michael Lemmon as the pianist.

Doris Penn led the class in a silent prayer and moments of memorial for deceased classmates.

Danny Soloman read a poetry selection, and Arthur Hairston introduced the evening's keynote speaker, Thomie Douthit.

Lee Alma Vaughn concluded the program with remarks before the class sang the school's alma mater.

Dick Zeltvogel, president of Alpine Beverage Distributing Inc. of Winston-Salem, recently presented a check for $500 to Fleechia M. Holloway, winner of the local Coors Veterans' Memorial Scholarship Fund.

The check will be used to assist Ms. Holloway with her educational expenses at Winston-Salem State University.

The Coors Veterans' Memorial Scholarship Fund provides college financial aid to the sons and daughters of American veterans on both a national and local level.

Ms. Holloway's scholarship resulted from Alpine Beverage's local fund-raising efforts for the program, which included Coors canister donations in retail accounts.

The First National Grier Family Reunion was held Aug. 30 to 31 at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Winston-Salem.

Jerry Mack presided at the program, whose theme was "Looking Toward the Future Together with Love, Peace and Happiness."

The invocation was given by Bishop Miller, and Ollie Grier Mack brought greetings to the family members.

After the dinner, Anna M. Ingram provided a musical interlude, and the family history was presented by Clarence Grier Jr.

Marthola Grier Payne and Mae Grier Jones led the memorial service and lighting of the candles in honor of deceased family members.

A solo was presented by Jerry Quick. The guest speakers were Bishop Miller, Gwendolyn Hunter Ashley and the Rev. Hedgley.

The program also featured a recognition of family members and guests by John Henry Grier, Lyndon Taylor and Veronica Grier Perry.

Bertha Grier Douglas presented special gifts to family members, and the program concluded with remarks by Janice Harrison and the benediction by the Rev. B.A. Mack.

The North Winston Senior Citizens Club held an honorary luncheon for Karen M.L. Simmons in appreciation of her dedicated services as their adviser since 1978.

The program was held Aug. 30 at Bethlehem Community Center, where Ms. Simmons is the community services coordinator.

A meeting for the Round-Up for class reunions for Atkins High classes of 1940 through 1945 will be held at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, Sept. 25, at the home of Warren and Lucille Fulp, 567 Kinard.

Members of the 1945 class may call Manderline Scales at 767-4003 or Ella O. Bohannon at 723-9020.

Since 1968, Special Olympics has grown from a handful of events to a truly Olympic movement, involving more than a million special athletes in more than 50 countries of the world.

Special Olympians now compete in more than 16 events, most of which experts once said the retarded child and youth could never learn to perform.

The 1987 International Summer Special Olympics will be held July 30 through Aug. 8 at the University of Notre Dame in South Bend, Ind.

Civitan International has been designated to serve as a premier sponsor for the games and has pledged $1.6 million for the international games.

The Rupert Bell Community Flower Club recently sponsored a gathering of neighbors for a community cookout of grilled hot dogs and hamburgers and desserts.

The organization's president, Kathryn Speas, welcomed the neighbors to the event. The affair's chairman was Pearl Fair. She was assisted by Birdie Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. James Burney and Johnny McIntyre.
