Turner

she did not appeal to mostly white audiences, but America/the world will be poorer without a Tina Turner who visits it with dirges and love songs that speak to the black experience.

Hope tonight while having a dinner of greens, fatback, yams and buttermilk that the evening news doesn't announce that the Rev. James Cleveland - in developing and broadening his (commercial) appeal - is now singing with the Mormon Tabernacle Choir; or, for that matter, that Yitzak Perlman is playing first fiddle with the Hee Haw round-up at the Grand Ole Opry.

Then again, maybe it's all rock 'n' roll ... signifying nothing.
