Based in Raleigh, the group is a sextet whose repertoire includes contemporary and original works.

Band members are Ray Codrington, Gregg Gelb, Ed Paolantonio, Salim Malik, Peter Ingram and Beverly Botsford. ...

The Atkins High School Class of 1961 remembered the "good ol' days" by celebrating its 25th-year class reunion Friday, Aug. 29, through Sunday, Aug. 31, at the Hilton Inn.

Activities included a get-acquainted social Friday night; a dinner Saturday with Thomie Douthit as guest speaker, followed by a dance; worship services at Goler Memorial AME Zion Church and a family picnic at Tanglewood Park Sunday evening, with a "Bye-Bye Fellowship" at the Roots I Club.

Approximately 50 classmates attended the reunion.

General co-chairpersons were Camille Miller Allen, Bernard Byrd, Robert Harris and Carolyn Archie Rice.

Other committee members were Barbara McCarrell Rodgers, Doris Penn, Bernard Higgins, Gloria Love, Jerry Hairston, Arthur Hairston, Herman Carson, Reginald Parker and Danny Solomon.

The theme for this year's reunion was "We've Come This Far by Faith." ...

Dr. Glenda E. Gill, associate professor of English at Winston-Salem State University, recently received a $6,000 grant from the Roothbert Fund to further her research and writing on black participation in the Federal Theater of 1935 to 1939.

From this effort, Class magazine will publish an article, "Dick Campbell: Feisty Man of Black Theater," in its November issue. ...

The annual Co-Ed Barbecue of Wentz Memorial United Church of Christ was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Marion R. Blair Saturday, Aug. 30, from 3 to 6:30 p.m.

High school and college graduates and church members were invited.

An inspirational spiritual period was directed by Mrs. Blair, co-ed coordinator. The afternoon and evening were spent in fellowship. ...

Since integration many have debated the future of Atkins High School as a community school. Many suggestions have been made.

In order to initiate a plan of action to express the black community's wishes for the school, a public forum has been scheduled for Saturday, Sept. 27.

The forum will allow all alumni and friends to be surveyed.

The meeting will be held at 4 p.m. at the Winston Lake Family YMCA. ...

The First Annual Scholarship Banquet of the Ingram family was held recently at Winston-Salem State University's dining hall.

The purpose of the banquet was to honor all family graduates and to award tokens of love and scholarships to those who are furthering their education.

Family graduates were Reginald Bethea, Tony Ingram, Lamont Lewis and Monica Dillard.

The speaker for the occasion was Dr. Manderline Scales, who challenged the family to continue to strive for unity and excellence in all endeavors.

Executing the program were Jake Ingram, Linda Rogers, Calvin Ingram, Annie Ingram and Doug Ingram.

Cynthia Wooten provided music for singers Ben Gray, George Wooten, Clarence Gilliam and Doug Ingram.

Five generations were represented at the banquet.

Other activities included a family worship service and a picnic. ...
