"Just Doing the Will of God" (Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.)

The stage was set before the birth
Of Martin Luther King,
And through him it was God above
Just doing his own thing.

God worked through King and did a job
That no one else could take,
And when God does his work in you
There will be no mistakes.

God knew the heart of man was wrong,
He saw his evil game,
So God stepped in to let man know
All people are the same.

To man the world was doing fine
By keeping people slaves,
Until the day that God looked down
And saw the need to save.

King spoke with such authority
And stood tall as a tree.
Like Moses he was telling man
To set the people free.

They cursed him and they beat him,
Then they put him in a jail,
But still he pressed on through it all:
With God he could not fail.

In King we saw the will of God
To set all people free;
King walked about, bold as a lion,
For justice he could see.

King, like Moses, did obey
Commandments that God gave,
And through it all not only blacks
Were able to be saved.

He had been to the mountain top,
King knew that he would die;
He also knew that in the end
God would be standing by.

Now in your hearts, I know you did not
Want this man to leave,
But King had done the will of God,
So no more should you grieve.

With God no man has ever failed
By doing what was right;
It's evil people in the world
Who cannot sleep at night.

King only left this earthly world,
Which soon will pass away;
We all will see our brother
On that Resurrection Day.

But only if we live our lives
To please God who is true,
For if you are a child of God
You'll do what's asked of you.

Just in time to pray
I'm so glad I brought Jesus' light
Because it is shining beautiful and bright

The omnipresent Ram football team took their celebration to the floor immediately after the game. As the final second ticked off, some of WSSU's best football players teed off on Hooper, Hood, Spell & Co. with a floor show of their own.

The resulting pile paid tribute to the biggest win of the season - and one that could portend something good for the Rams next month at the CIAA Tournament in Richmond.

"I don't see any dominate team in our league," Hooper said. "Anybody can win the tourney."
