

Winston-Salem Chronicle

The Twin City's Award-Winning Weekly

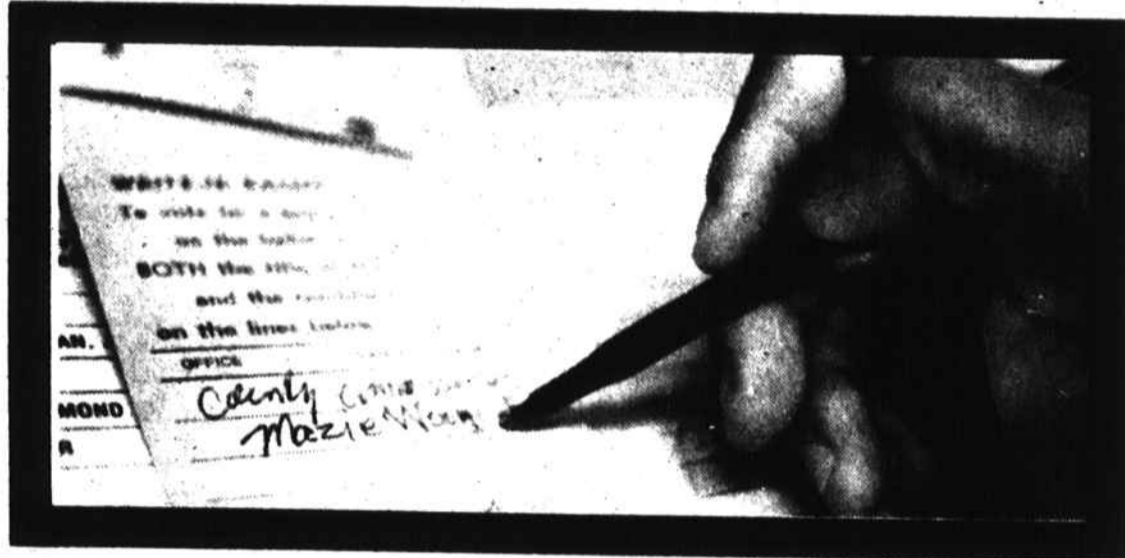

Vol. XIII, No. 24 U.S.P.S. No. 067910 Winston-Salem, N.C. Thursday, February 5, 1987 50 cents 46 Pages This Week

ANGELA DAVIS: HEARTENED BY '60S ACTIVISM IN THE '80S

The Best...

A WRITE-IN CAMPAIGN FOR MAZIE WOODRUFF

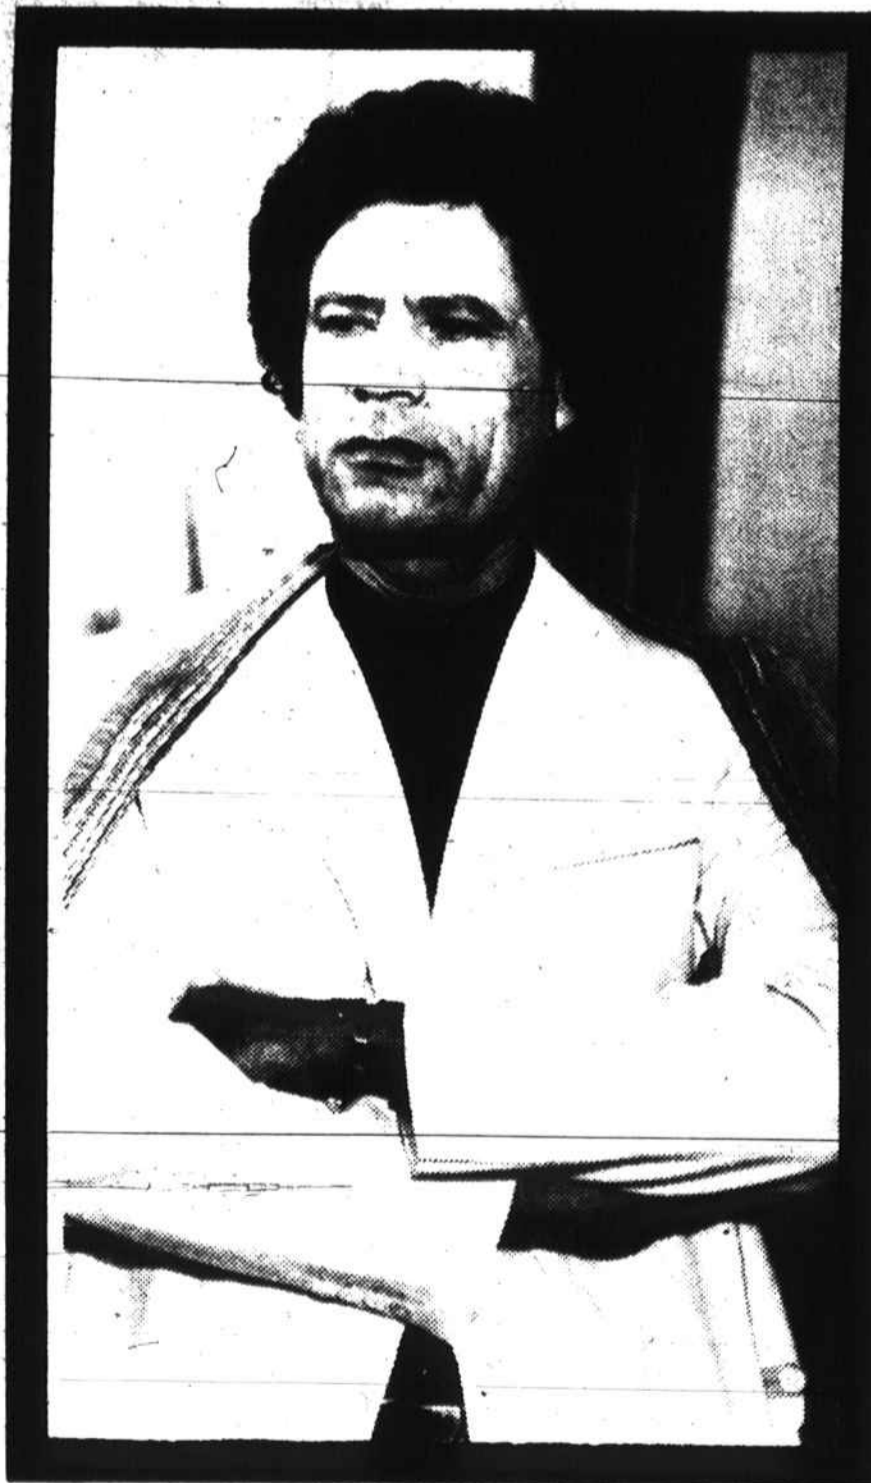

...And Worst of Years

A BITTER PRIMARY DEFEAT

PHOTOS BY JAMES PARKER,
JOE DANIELS
AND AP

QUADAFFI: MAKE MY DAY

A TRIBUTE TO A HERO'S WIDOW: CHERYL McNAIR

- PEOPLE OF THE YEAR C5
- ATHLETES OF THE YEAR C7
- PREDICTIONS FOR '87 A5
- THE YEAR IN SPORTS B1
- A YEAR OF UP'S AND DOWN'S C1
- A QUIZ ON THE OLD YEAR C5

By The Chronicle Staff

NOTABLE quotes that appeared in our pages last year:

• Former District Attorney Donald K. Thibault, to a Chronicle reporter following his loss in May's Democratic primary: "How all gonna all newspapers..."

• Thibault to another Chronicle reporter, following the November general election: "I have no comment to make because you couldn't get it right. You haven't got a damn thing right in your newspaper about anything."

• Former County Commissioner Mazie Woodruff, after her unsuccessful write-in campaign had secured a seat on the Democratic Party: "I don't expect any representation from the Democratic Party because I won't accept any. Politics made any enemies for me."

• The Rev. John Mendes, a member of the Day Defense Fund, on the arrest of Hunt and Sainz: "Please see page A10."