Navy Seaman Recruit Samuel C. Branch has completed recruit training at Recruit Training Command in San Diego.

During Branch's eight-week training cycle, he studied general military subjects designed to prepare him for further academic and on-the-job training.

His studies included seamanship, close-order drill, naval history and first aid. Personnel who complete the course are eligible for three hours of college credit in physical education and hygiene.

Branch is the son of Vivian and Samuel C. Branch Sr. of Winston-Salem.

Marine Pfc. Bryan L. Shouse has completed recruit training at Marine Corps Recruit Depot at Parris Island, S.C.

During the 11-week training cycle, Shouse was taught the basics of battlefield survival. He was introduced to the typical daily routine that he will experience during his enlistment and studied the personal and professional standards traditionally exhibited by Marines.

He is the son of Clinton L. and Glenda H. Shouse of Winston-Salem.

Marine Pvt. Clarence McMillian recently reported for duty with 2nd Division Camp Lejeune.

He is the son of Mary A. McMillian of Winston-Salem.

Marine Lance Cpl. Allen P. Ingram recently reported for duty with 3rd Force Service Support Group on Okinawa.

He is the son of Margaret H. Ingram of Winston-Salem.

spearheading the redesign of council support systems.

The Minority Development Task Force, organized last spring, is composed of 24 local community leaders. It was organized to take a look at low-income and minority scouting in the Forsyth County area and to determine how it could be improved both in terms of quantity of youth and quality of the program, Murray said.

"The task force ultimately determined that we needed to employ a full-time minority executive who would work in Forsyth County and help to achieve a number of objectives that they had identified," Murray said.

Murray said that Crump's position is being funded by a grant from the Kate B. Reynolds Poor and Needy Trust. The United Way has agreed to help fund the position after 1987, he said.

Right now Crump is getting a feel for his new job. But soon, he said, he will be in full swing.

He will be attending a training program in Dallas in March.

"From everything I read about that program, I'll be able to take Forsyth County by storm when I return," he said. "It's some pretty thorough training."

The Thing You'll Like Most About Our Home Equity Loan Is Having To Pay The Interest.

Because the interest is all you have to pay until a home equity loan from NCNB reaches maturity.

LineOne® Equity is a revolving line of credit based on the equity in a home. And it's one of the few consumer loans for which interest deductions may still be allowable under the new tax law. But it's different from most other home equity loans in that it allows you to pay as little or as much of the principal each month as you choose. You even have the option of only paying the interest each month.

And that's a big plus, which can be seen from the chart shown below.

Line Of Credit Monthly Repayment Schedule.

Credit Amount	NCNB ¹	Bank A ²	Bank B ²	Bank C ²
$10,000	$71	$150	$170	$300
$20,000	$142	$300	$340	$600
$50,000	$354	$750	$850	$1500
$100,000	$708	$1500	$1700	$3000

Assumes an 8 1/2% rate* and an outstanding balance equal to the credit amount shown, 15 yr. term. ¹Interest-only payment option. ²Required payments as a percentage of outstanding balance (interest and principal payment).

What's more, LineOne Equity from NCNB can offer you advantages that home equity loans from most banks

*Example is based on NCNB's Prime Rate plus 1%. NCNB's Prime Rate is the rate announced by NCNB from time to time as its Prime Rate. Although the Annual Percentage Rate may vary, on December 10, 1986 the Annual Percentage Rate was 8 1/2%.

Equal Housing Lender

across the state just don't. Which include: 1) No origination fees; 2) A fast closing of usually 10 to 15 business days after you apply; 3) No fees for unused credit; and 4) A credit line of up to $100,000 or more, or up to 100% of the equity in your home.

But best of all, LineOne Equity allows you to use your credit anytime, anywhere, just by writing a check.

So visit your local NCNB office or call Phone-A-Loan at 1-800-342-9701 (in Greensboro, 855-NCNB), and ask about LineOne Equity.

Then, compare it to other home equity loans. We think that you'll find LineOne Equity to be an item of interest.
