

Girls State convenes at UNC-G

The 48th Tarheel Girls State session was held June 7 to 13 at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, with several local residents among the participants.

The Girls State Commission was in charge of the session, sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary.

The 1987 session was opened by Arelene Barrett, president of the Department of North Carolina Auxiliary. The theme for this year's session was "Justice for All" in commemoration of the bicentennial of the United States Constitution.

Alisa Robinson, the 1986 Girls State governor, was invited by Gov. James G. Martin to attend the opening ceremonies of the bicentennial held in Philadelphia. She also brought greetings and gave a farewell address to the 1987 participants.

Lt. Gov. Robert Jordan spoke during Thursday's session and Martin addressed the youngsters during the Friday activities.

Other speakers were Dot Kearns, chairman of the Guilford County Board of Commissioners; Jane Thompson, assistant attorney general of North Carolina; and Delores Parker, former chairman of the Greensboro Human Relations Commission.

The Girls State Chorus, directed by Martha G. Jones, provided music for the session. Mrs. Jones also chaired the Distinguished Guest Committee.

Mrs. Jones has been appointed by the department president to serve as the 1987-88 Girls State Commissioner.

Tonya Robinson of Durham was elected as the governor of the 1987 Girls State citizens.

Local Girls State citizens were Charisse Cooper, a Mount Tabor student and the daughter of Glassonia Cooper; Tracy Kennedy, a Mount Tabor student and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kennedy; Arnella Jarrett, a student at Carver and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jarrett; Carol Ann McDonald, a Mount Tabor student and the daughter of Carolyn McDonald; India Hall, a student at Carver and the daughter of Ernestine Hall; Marie Allen Gibbs, a Reynolds student and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gibbs; and Jennifer Crofoot, a student at East Forsyth and the daughter of Susan H. Yarborough.

Other local participants were Tammie Huddle, a Parkland student and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sellers; Erica Rouzer, a student at West Forsyth and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hackney; Elif Erginer, a North Forsyth student and the daughter of Eric Erginer; and Jessica Rabb, a student at Bishop McGuinness and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Rabb.

The Sara Lee Corp. and the Black Political Awareness League were the co-sponsors of the session.

Auxiliaries sponsoring citizens were units No. 55, No. 128 and No. 220.

COMMUNITY NEWS DEADLINES ...

The Chronicle welcomes community news and calendar items. The deadline for announcements is Monday at 5:30 p.m.

King Solomon's Assembly No. 64 holds 20th anniversary celebration

King Solomon Assembly No. 64, Order of the Golden Circle celebrated its 26th anniversary at a banquet held June 6 in the Red Room at Winston-Salem State University.

The mistress of ceremonies was Lorene Jones, associate ruler of the Golden Circle. Mattie Mae Alexander welcomed guests and members to the banquet. Willie Mae Saunders presented the history of the assembly.

The speaker for the evening was Dr. Manderline Scales, who was introduced by Dorothy Mitchell.

Dr. Scales' speech included a history of the assembly and of those who helped to make it a strong organization. She discussed the fact that the Golden Circle was founded on peace and unity and that all of its members strive to exhibit good character, love and friendship.

William Stevenson, commander chief, brought greetings at the function.

Annie P. Johnson read a poem for the occasion, and Aaron Johnson provided music for the affair. He was accompanied by Barbara Benson.

The banquet was highlighted by remarks from Thelma Cooper, ruler of the assembly. Mrs. Cooper thanked the group for their cooperation and presented certificates and carnations to the members.

Members of the program committee included Mrs. Saunders, Mirian Littlejohn, Lorene Jones and Dorothy Spencer.

Phi Delta Kappa

From Page A8

sored by Ruth Reich; Dan Elysa Smith, second place sponsored by Beatrice M. Watts; Raynese O. Coleman, third place, sponsored by Mabel Jessup; Melanie Sellars and Dolly Ross Morrow, tied for fourth, sponsored by Glennie M. Hall and Piccola L. Morrow respectively.

Honorable mentions were Candace Redd, sponsored by Mary Lee Ellis, and Sheketa Epps, sponsored by Mattie Mae Alexander.

Maxine Brandon and Anne Motz served as presiders for the occasion.

Refreshments were served by Mattie Neal.

Officers for the next biennial were installed at the end of the meeting. Officers are Mrs. Alexander, basileus; Mrs. Jessup, first anti-basileus; Mrs. Motz, second anti-basileus; Mrs. Brandon, grammateus; Olivia Bausman, epistoleus; Mary Lee Ellis, tamiouschos; Mrs. Neal, tamias; Mrs. Brandon, dean of pledges; Mrs. Morrow, journalist; Mildred Leak, public relations director; Glenie Hall, parliamentarian; Mrs. Watts, executive advisor.

Be a Big Brother or Big Sister

Call your local Big Brothers/Big Sisters Agency

SWIMSUIT COMPETITION BEGINS SUNDAY JULY 5

Thurs., July 2 WTHP Night

Fri., July 3 KAPPA FEST

$3.00 Cover 5-9 p.m. OJAY'S After Party

After 9 p.m., $3 members, $5 guests

Sun., July 5 Swimsuit Competition

11:30 p.m.

- Free registration: Must enter by Saturday before competition
- Semifinalists win $50 and General Membership
- Finalists win $200 and VIP Membership

Thurs., July 9 Ladies' Night

Ladies free before 11 p.m.

Memberships Available

Open Thurs.-Sun. 8 p.m. 'til 3 a.m.

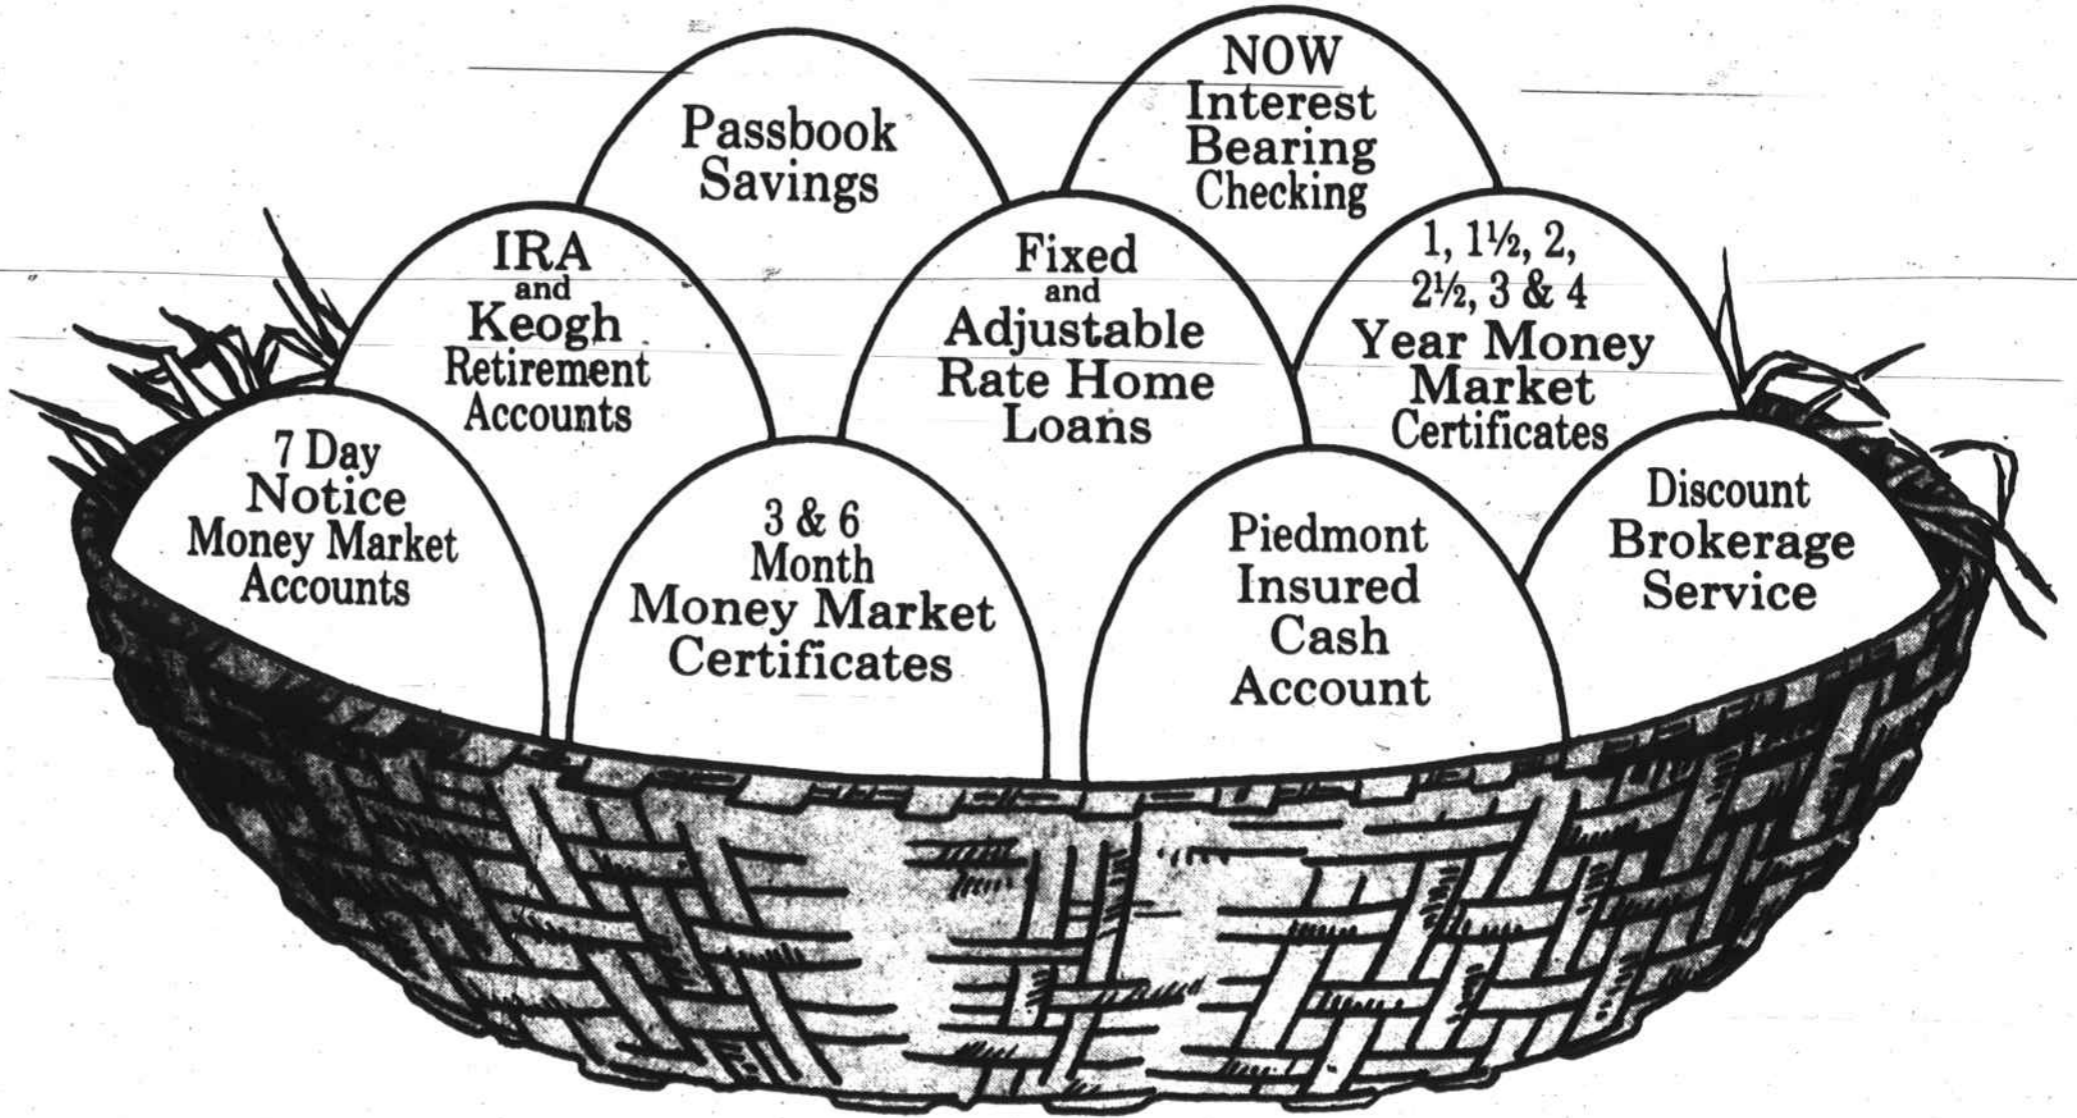

KAPPA FEST FRIDAY, JULY 3

Free Hors d'Oeuvres!

738 E. 28th St.

727-9327

You CAN Put All Your Eggs In One Basket

Piedmont Federal Can Help You With Your Financial Needs.

There is no need to run all over town for your Savings and Investment needs. Piedmont Federal has 10 convenient locations offering a wide range of financial services, all at very competitive rates.

Plus your Piedmont Federal Account is insured safe up to $100,000 by the FSLIC, a U.S. Government Agency. Convenience, Competitive Rates and Safety — you can put all your eggs in one basket at Piedmont Federal.

Piedmont Federal

SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION

16 West Third Street, P.O. Box 215, Winston-Salem, N.C. 27102

BRANCHES: Northside Shopping Center, Parkway Plaza Shopping Center, Thruway Shopping Center, Sherwood Plaza Shopping Center, Parkview Mall Shopping Center, Kernersville, Boone, North Wilkesboro, Clemmons.

725-5371