

Class members set for weekend reunion

The Atkins High School Classes of 1930 through 1939 will hold a class reunion July 17 to 18 at the Holiday Inn North.

The program will feature a "Fun Night" Friday, July 18.

Saturday reunion activities will include a breakfast, business meeting, slides of Winston-Salem, a memorial service, picture-taking and a banquet.

Dr. William Lyles will be the banquet speaker. Lyles, a New York psychologist, is featured in the current issues of Ebony magazine and he is also a member of the reunion class.

Members who have not been contacted, should call Frank K. Thomas at 723-5986.

Members of several of the Atkins High School classes will meet this weekend to share holiday reunion activities. The reunion's events will be held at Winston Plaza through the weekend. Members of the reunion planning committee are pictured above.

Garden club holds meeting

The Along the Garden Path Flower Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willie L. Crowder June 15 for its monthly meeting.

The meeting was opened with the reading of the Collect and the singing of the club song.

Mrs. Ellsworth Banner, president, presided. Emmaline Goodwin read the minutes of the previous meeting, Verna Grier presented the treasurer's report and Savila Wilson gave the financial report.

Carrie Mayfield, corresponding secretary, read a letter from the State Federation of Garden and Flower Clubs. There was a discussion of the recent Fourth District Flower and Garden Show, held at the Rupert Bell Recreation Center.

The nominating committee made its report and Mrs. Grier read the slate of officers for 1988-89.

Officers are Mrs. Banner, president; Julia Johnson, first vice president; Bronnie Daniels, second vice president and Sinclair Crowder, third vice president.

The new secretaries will be Mrs. Goodwin, recording; Louise Hamilton, assistant; Mrs. Grier, financial; Mrs. Mayfield, corresponding. Mrs. Wilson will serve as treasurer and Mrs.

Crowder as reporter.

Meta McClennon and Roberta Cook also attended the meeting.

Following the installation of the new officers, dinner was served to all members.

Holloway

Sorority cites local storyteller

The local chapter, Beta Lambda, of the national sorority of Phi Delta Kappa Inc. held its last meeting of the year June 17 at the home of Lizetta Staplefoote. Beatrice Watts, the chapter's basileus, presided.

Following the ritualistic opening of the meeting, Shirley H. Holloway was presented a certificate of award for her achievements and efforts in forming the Farheel Association of Storytellers. Mrs. Holloway was also recognized for her contributions in sharing her stories with the area's young people.

The award was presented by Mabel Jessup, awards chairperson.

A "Chit, Chat and Chew" social hour was held for Mrs. Holloway by the chapter at Mrs. Jessup's home June 24.

During the meeting, a report was given on the second annual "Stars on Parade" by Mattie Mae Alexander. The fund-raiser was a combination of a contest, fashion and talent show. Proceeds will benefit the educational and charitable endeavors of the sorority.

The talent show phase consisted of piano and dance selections by gifted children of the city. Fashions for play, beach and street were modeled by the contestants and other boys and girls.

The contest winners were Vincent Wilkins, first place, spon-
