Bishop McGuinness students inducted into honor society

Bishop McGuinness students Tawanna King and Carla Turner were recently inducted into the National Honor Society.

King and Turner, both juniors, were named to the society which honors academic excellence. National Honor Society students are required to have at least a 3.0 grade point average.

The McGuinness chapter of the National Honor Society also inducted the following students into the honor society. They include: juniors Brett Murphy, Brian Spainhour, Chris Diffe, Eric Guzenhauser and David Winters. Senior class honor society students included Jeanine Karnbach, Karen Rieker, Ervin Schmidt and Liz Noble.

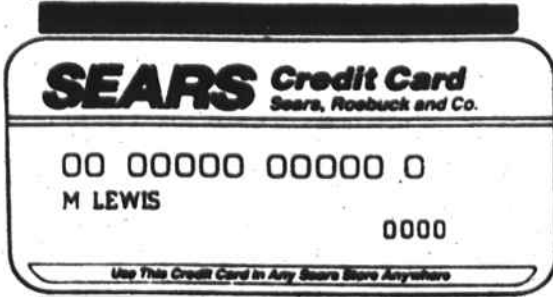

Bishop McGuinness is the only Catholic high school in Winston-Salem.

Academically Wise

Rochelle M. Brandon was recently honored by coordinators of the "In Pursuit of Academic Excellence" program at the UNC-Chapel Hill.
