NCSA to present annual Mozart concert

School of Music faculty from the North Carolina School of the Arts will be featured in the Annual Mozart birthday concert at 8 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 16 in the Stevens Center.

This concert, which is a part of the School's Faculty Artists' Series, will feature the works of the brilliant Austrian composer, Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, who lived in the 1700s.

The concert is among the most popular of all the music events at the School of the Arts.

Highlights of the concert will include: Three Preludes and Fugues" (preludes by Mozart for figures of J.S. Bach) and "Quartet for Piano and Strings in g minor, K. 478."

Both works will feature Elaine Richey, violin; Sally Peck, viola; and Robert Marsh, violoncello. Eric Larsen, piano, will join the trio for the "Quartet."

Admission to the concert will be $5 for adults and $3 for students and senior citizens.

This is an ARTSCARD event. For reservations, persons may telephone the NCSA/Stevens Center Box Office at 721-1945.

MILITARY NOTES

Searcy completes recruit training in Florida

Navy Seaman Recruit Aldine D. Searcy, son of Aldine Searcy of 1215 E. 29th St., Winston-Salem, has completed recruit training at Recruit Training Command, Orlando, Fla.

During Searcy's eight-week training cycle, he studied general military subjects designed to prepare him for further academic and on-the-job training in one of the Navy's 85 basic fields.

Searcy's studies included seamanship, close order drill, Naval history and first aid. Personnel who complete this course of instruction are eligible for three hours of college credit in physical education and hygiene.

A 1987 graduate of Lakeshore High School in College Park, Ga., he joined the Navy in September 1987.

Marine Lance Cpl. Jeffrey L. Hilton, son of James W. and Ruby A. Hilton of 5120 Butterfield Drive, has been promoted to his present rank while serving with First Marine Division, Camp Pendleton, Calif.

A 1984 graduate of East Forsyth High School in Kernersville, he joined the Marine Corps in January 1987. His wife, Aleia, is the daughter of William B. and Geneva Benton, also of Winston-Salem.

Marine Lance Cpl. Walter A. Hunter and Marine Cpl. James L. McCray, both of Winston-Salem recently participated in exercise Spanish Phiblex 2-87 while serving with 22nd Marine Amphibious Unit, Camp Lejeune.

During the exercises Hunter and McCray participated in joint air and surface assaults, followed by cross-training ashore with Spanish Naval infantrymen. They also participated in small unit training, along with crew-served weapons live-fire exercises.

Both are currently participating in a six-month deployment to the Mediterranean Sea, conducting operations with NATO allies.

Hunter is a 1985 graduate of Parkland High School. He joined the Marine Corps in July 1985. McCray is a 1984 East Forsyth Senior High School graduate. He joined the Marine Corps in July 1987.

Navy Seaman Recruit, Donnie A. Warren, son of Donnie A. and Phyllis T. Warren of Winston-Salem has completed recruit training at Recruit Training Command, Great Lakes, Ill.

During Warren's eight-week training cycle, he studied general military subjects designed to prepare him for further academic and on-the-job in one of the Navy's 85 basic fields. Warren's studies included seamanship, close order drill, Naval history and first aid.

Warren is a 1987 graduate of North Forsyth High School. He joined the Navy in May 1987.

Navy Airman Apprentice Woodrow W. Johnson, son of Gloria D. White of 740 Patterson

Avenue, recently returned from a five and one-half month deployment to the Mediterranean with Fighter Squadron-74 in Mayport, Fla.

During the deployment Johnson participated in routine training operations and several major exercises. Port calls were also made to Morocco, Tunisia, Spain, France, Italy, Greece, Romania, Turkey, Israel, Egypt and Cape Verde. He joined the Navy in January 1987.

James B. Joyner, a June graduate of Bishop McGuinness High School, has been accepted into the Army Warrant Officer Candidate Flight Training Program. The young man was selected out of a field of 150 applicants from Western North Carolina.

Joyner, 18, will report for eight weeks of basic training at Fort Jackson, S.C. He then will receive 52 weeks of flight training at Fort Rucker, Ala. and upon completion of the training will be commissioned as a warrant officer.

Joyner says the idea of flying helicopters for the Army excites him. "I just wish I could begin sooner," he says. The wait until January is to accommodate the school schedule.

In a conversation with his recruiter, Staff Sgt. Richard Stein of the Winston-Salem Recruiting Station, Joyner provided some additional insight into his decision to enlist.

"My father was an officer in the Marine Corps for thirteen years," said Joyner. "He taught me some very valuable things."

Young men and women interested in the Army's Warrant Officer Candidate Flight Training Program should contact Staff Sgt. Stein in the Federal Building at 725-2934.

Efficient Club ends 1987 agenda

The Efficient Club recently held its last three meetings of 1987.

The December meeting was held at the home of Madgeleene Walls.

The November meeting was held at the home of Theodore Clark in Pilot Mountain and the October meeting was held at the home of Theodosia Patton.

At the December meeting new members were installed. During the meeting club business was discussed by president Cara Broome.

Walls served dinner for the group and Christmas carols were sung.

West Forsyth PTA to sponsor careers workshops

The West Forsyth PTA will offer an unique opportunity for students to acquire authentic job information and gain respect on Monday, Jan. 11 at 7 p.m.

Parents and others in the community will be stationed around the gym to share informally with small groups of students and their parents, information about their careers.

There will be a wide variety of careers represented including those that require technical training or may be learned on the job, as well as those that require a college degree.

West Forsyth students are encouraged to attend the seminar and bring their parents along.

Bus transportation will be provided at the following locations: Kennedy Middle School, Atkins Middle School, Hanes Middle School and the Masonic Temple on 14th Street.
