Jones named auxiliary head

The American Legion Auxiliary has re-elected Martha Jones as 18th district president.

Mrs. Jones was elected at the district meeting which recently was held in the city.

Mary G. Thomas was elected 18th district vice president.

Officers who have served as presidents on the unit level are eligible for the district positions.

Mrs. Jones will focus on the responsibility of overseeing all programs planned for seven units in the 18th district.

Thomas' job will focus on junior auxiliary programs involving membership. Recruitment of girls from infancy to 18 years of age will be the 1988-89 goal. The district reached its goal in March.

"Working together in the American Legion Auxiliary will be very beneficial for us," Mrs. Jones said. "The job will be very rewarding for a mother-daughter team."

Mrs. Jones has worked for the N.C. State University Extension Service for 17 years. Mrs. Thomas is employed by Winston-Salem State University and Stouffer's. Both are members of Zion Memorial Baptist Church.

Flower Niche holds meeting at the McKoys

The Flower Niche Garden Club held its monthly meeting Saturday, April 16, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William McKoy. A lunch was served at the start of the meeting.

Edythe Williams, the club's president, opened the session with the Collect and a poem by Ralph Waldo Emerson, "Seeing Beauty."

The agenda included the reading and approval of the minutes of the previous meeting, announcements, the Fourth District Council report and a discussion of the plans for the upcoming Horticultural Show.

Three club members led discussions during the meeting. They were Mozella Williams, "Care of the Miniature Rose;" Savannah Lewis, "The Christmas Cactus;" and Bernice Davenport, "Container Vegetable Gardens."

Members attending included Vivienne Conley, Lois Hauser, Leola Sadler, Eula Smith, Louise McGhee, Grace Lowery, Bessye Dobson and Marian Wooten.

Carl A. Allen receives award

On March 10 and 11, the Educational Services Unit of the D. C. Department of Corrections held its Second Annual Teacher's Conference in Washington.

This year's theme was "Proud Professionals: Helping Others to Be Proud," where Carl A. Allen was named Guidance Counselor of the Year-1987-1988.

Allen is a 1973 graduate of Winston Salem University. He earned the master of science degree in 1976 from North Carolina A & T State University. He also did further study at the University of the District of Columbia.

Prior to his move to Washington, Allen was a counselor at WSSU. He served as the advisor to the class of 1982. Currently, he is a guidance counselor with the D. C. Department of Corrections Educational Services.

He is the son of Mr. & Mrs. Hoyt M. Allen, Sr. of Winston Salem.
