

Post #220 honors community members

Commander James McWillis presided and greetings were brought by Joan Bell, auxiliary president.

Southeast Ward Alderman Larry Womble spoke to the group about overall participation in the legion and the auxiliary. He cited several instances of Afro-Americans starting with little and making great accomplishments. Womble told the group that they must strive to reach their goals in life and remember to help their fellow man.

Award winners were Southern Prysock, Legionnaire of the Year; and Doris Crosby, auxiliary Member of the Year.

The auxiliary presented gifts to McWillis.

Mary Frazier was named "Most Outstanding Member of the Year" by Mrs. Bell.

Mrs. Martha Jones, 18th District president, also was recognized at the program.

The groups presented certificates to Carmel Leak, Archie Fair, Herman Little, Oscar Beal, Steven Tillman, Clay Bryan, Clay Bradshaw, C.R. Hall Jr., Floyd Neal, George Grady, Jerome Mulrow, Curley Jeffries, Randolph Purvis, Wallace Black, Paul Frazier, Lucy Boykin, Sandy Penn, the Napper Singers, the Gospel Emotions, the Gospel Stylistics, the J.S. Mickens Choir of White Rock Baptist Church, J.S. Mickens Choir of White Rock Baptist, D.C. Dodd, Tyrone Willis, the Gospel Realists and the Phase Band.

Plaques were presented to Thomas Jackson, Doris Crosby, Charles Roane, Rupert Bell, Sharon Berrow, William Wright, Mary G. Thomas, Janie Murray, Southern Prysock, Tom McIver,

Honored Awardees

The American Legion Post #220 recently recognized members of the community for outstanding service to the post home during the year. The post honored individuals from all areas of the community and honored members of the post and its auxiliary for the contributions they made to the American Legion. Alderman Larry Womble was the guest speaker for the occasion. In his address, Womble encouraged the legion members to strive for their goals and to remain mindful of helping their fellow man. The post's awards banquet is held annually. James McWillis is the post commander.

Eastern Music Festival named Top 20 Event

The Southeast Tourism Society has picked Eastern Music Festival as a Top 20 Event for June according to Bill Hardin, executive director of the Southeast Tourism Society. This is the second year in a row that Eastern Music Festival has been selected for this honor. Only 20 events throughout the Southeast have been chosen for this distinction.

The inclusion of Eastern Music Festival in this distinctive group of events held throughout the Southeast reaffirms the regional and national presence that the Festival holds. I am particularly pleased Eastern Music Festival was named for the second year in a row. It is a real honor to be chosen along with these other events," states Gail C. Murphy, Eastern Music Festival's director of marketing.

Eastern Music Festival will open its 27th season on June 17 with 2 children's concerts and its opening night will be on Saturday, June 18 at Aycock Auditorium on the University of North Carolina at Greensboro campus.

Professional orchestra and chamber concerts as well as student concerts and recitals will continue through July 30 with concerts held throughout the Triad.

Concert schedules are available by contacting Eastern Music Festival, P.O. Box 22026, Greensboro, 27420 or by calling 919-272-9575.

25th Street Condolence Club members plan summer trip

The 25th Street Condolence and Flower Club recently met at the home of Margaret Hampton for its regular monthly meeting.

The chaplain, Annie Belle Hay, led the group in an inspirational devotion of bible verse and the club motto.

The president, Clara Bailey, opened the meeting and greeted the members. The minutes were requested, read and accepted and the members were reminded to contribute to a gift collection as a token of love for shut-in members. The members were encouraged to be responsible for the growth of the club by showing initiative and love for the community.

Plans for an outing to visit one of the club's founders were finalized for July. Transportation was discussed and the outing was approved. A new handbook was a concern of the group.

Members in attendance were, Nannie Gunning, Rozena Smith, Odessa Robinson, Leola Sadler Romelia Mason, Mary Philison, Sarah Maupin, Rachel Joyner Thelma Hinis, Annie Belle Hay, Maxwell Grier, Clara Bailey, Erma White, Lucy Spann, Sadie Peay, Bessie Beatty, Janie Flippin, Margaret Hampton and Myrtle Grant.
