

Hooks and Jackson

DOR'S GITCH SUCKNOWN BY THE NAME OF THE NA

Promotion For Fulton

Dorothy G. Fulton has been elected vice president at First Wachovia Operational Services in Winston-Salem. She is manager of support in Computer Services. She is a Winston-Salem native and a daughter of this Gardner of daughter of lola Gardner of Winston-Salem. She is a graduate of the College of Automation in Cincinnati, Ohio.

W-S Urban League Guild recognized as one of top three

Photo by Mike Cunningham elma Friende is the president of the Winston-Salem Urban

The Winston-Salem Urban The Winston-Salem Urban League Guild was recognized as one of the top three guilds in the Southern Region and cited for excellence in fund-raising and financial contributions to its local affiliate by the National Council of Urban League Guilds at the National Urban League Convention held in Detroit. The convention was held Into 29 to Aug. 3.

Detroit. The convention was held July 29 to Aug. 3.
Velma H. Friende, guild president, represented the chapter.
Hazel Brown, acting CEO of the Urban League; Joe Dickson, board chairman; and Sterling Spainhour, first vice president; also attended the conference.

The theme of the convention was "Working Together to Make A Difference: Rights, Responsibilitie Results."

Results."

Among the featured speakers were John Jacob, national Urban League president; the Rev. Jesse Jackson, Earl Graves, publisher; Michael Dukakis, presidential nominee; Vernon Jordan, Susan Taylor, Essence editor; and Coleman A. Young, mayor of Detroit.

Lou Rawls and Count Basie were guest artists were guest artists.

Mrs. Friende announced that the first fall meeting will be held Wednesday, Sept. 28, at the Urban League, 201 W. Fifth St. in preparation for the annual Ebony Fashion Fair

Emmanuel Baptist PAC to sponsor career development seminar Aug. 27

Emmanuel Baptist PAC will Emmanuel Baptist PAC will sponsor a career development seminar titled "How to Deal When You're a Minority Wheel" on Saturday, Aug. 27, at the Winston Lake Family YMCA. The Emmanuel PAC will present facilitators from the business community, such as Bell South, Greeson Page and Grace law firm, RJR Tobacco, zeveral small business entrepreneurs, the State Department of Social Services and Wachovia Bank & Trust Co.

Alphia Hicks, committee chair.

Alphia Hicks, committee chair, said: "Panelists will identify issues and problems which confront minorities in the 'mainstream' in their day-to-day activities. We will altempt to present methods for avoiding or resolving these conflicts. Approximately 100 people are expected to participate, and registration is available on a first-come, first-served basis. We will also be providing a deli-style buffet lunch at a cost of $5 per participant."

to begin with registration at 9:30 a.m. and end at 3 p.m.

To preregister or for more information, call the church at 788-1013 or Mrs. Tommye Brown, public relations director, at 760-0535.

Police, Reynolda Cinema complete 10-week free movie program

Although some of the children shouted that they wanted to see "Nightmare on Elm Street" and other frightening movies, they settled for "Pinocchio" -- just like the other 400 children standing in line at the Reynolda Cinema, as the theatre wound up its 10-week free movie program.

Each Tuesday and Wednesday morning this summer, at about 10:00 a.m., hundreds of children were turned away because the theater had met its holding capacity of 432, sometimes 30 minutes before the movie was to begin.

For 10 years Reynolda Cine-ma and the police department have sponsored the free children's movies for all ages, which includes popcorn and a soda for

The police department participates in this program so that children can see the friendly nature of police officers, Officer Shirley Taylor, also known as "Officer Priendly," said.

Before each movie, she talked with the youth, giving them safety tips and pointers on how to con-duct themselves while in a theatre.

Some of the children attending the movie Tuesday morning were from camps at The Boys Club, Kindercare, Sunny Glade Day Camp, and the Emmanuel Baptist Church Summer Day

After the movie, the children received a surprise visit from "PC the Patrol Car," which is a talking police car about three feet tall.

Due to a shortage of movie seats, many kids are turned away from the movies.

$999

VISA

SHOP: MONDAY-FRIDAY 10 A.M. - 8 P.M. SATURDAY 10 A.M. - 6 P.M.

STRATFORD EXECUTIVE PARK

hoose Haverty's Charge Plan, pay in 30-60-90 days with no finance charges, or we welcome ..