W-S Bible College to hold 38th convocation, dedication rites

The 38th annual convocation service of Winston-Salem Bible College will be held Sunday, Sept. 18, at 5 p.m.

This year's convocation will include the dedication of the new student apartment building.

The dedication service will include a special tribute to three Christian leaders in the history of the school.

They are: C.M. Robinson, the former minister of Baileytown Christian Church and Carver Road Christian Church; James A. Brown, a long-time elder at Spencer Memorial Christian Church; and B.A. Douglas, a well known minister of Oak Grove Baptist Church of Walkertown.

Special music will be provided by various members of the WSBK family.

The school will offer tours of the newly remodeled Peters Hall, as well as the new apartments.

of Sunday school students will be held during the Sunday school sessions at 9:30 a.m.

Other seminar topics and speakers will include "Freeing Yourself to be the Total Man God Wants, Elder Reese; "Freeing Yourself to be the Total Woman God Wants," Mrs. N. Reese;

"What Our Teens Need to Know About Sex, Drugs, AIDS But Are Afraid to Ask," Evangelist Johnson; "Single Adults -- Coping With Loneliness and Depression," Mr. Melton; "What Men/Women Wished Their Spouses Knew About Them," Elder and Mrs. Reese.
