Bank workers celebrate holiday despite being unable to close doors

By ROBIN BARKSDALE Chronicle Staff Writer

Employees of Mechanics and Farmers Bank have found themselves between a rock and a hard place with the approach of the Martin Luther King Jr. holiday.

Most Afro-American businesses will be closed in commemoration of the civil rights leader's birthday. But, by law, the bank will not be permitted to close its doors for the holiday.

The state of North Carolina only recognizes eight legal holidays for banks, and the new King holiday is not among the group. Currently the state recognizes as legal bank holidays: New Year's Day, President's Day, Good Friday, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day and Christmas Day.

Barbara Cloer of the N. C. Department of Commerce said that legal holidays are created by statute in the General Assembly. In order for the King holiaday to be declared a legal holiday, and the banks allowed to close, the assembly would have to make adjustments in statute GS53-772A. She said that banks have "no options" in determining when they recognize a holiday and must adhere precisely to the statute. Even the governor, she said, can not shut down banks for a holiday.

"Gov. Martin does not, in any way, determine holidays for state banks." she said. "They are determined only by state statute."

James T. Sughrue, the governor's press secretary, said that the King holiday is an official state holiday but that the decree would have no bearing on what the banks do.

"Bank holidays are specifically cited in the statutes. The (King) holiday is recognized as a state holiday, which means that state offices are closed. But banks have their own specifications and requirements under which they operate. Just because it is a state holiday, does not make it a holiday for banks," he said. The King holiday falls into the same category as Veterans Day, which is a state holiday but is not recognized by the banks. Although they will be required to remain open on King's holiday, the employees of Mechanics and Farmers, nonetheless, plan to show their support for the observances. Walter Tucker, executive vice president and city executive for Winston-Salem, said that the bank's staff has something special planned to commemorate the holiday on Monday.

"By law, the bank is unable to close. But being who we are, we are trying, in spite of not being able to close, to do something special for the occasion. We have ordered special Martin Luther King sweatsuits. Everyone will be dressed in their sweatsuits and we will try to be dressed as uniformly as possible," he said. "We felt that even though we could not be closed, we still wanted to show that we are in support of the holiday. We felt this would be a good way to recognize Dr. King. It'll also help our customers to celebrate and relate to the holiday."

Tucker said that the bank will play tapes of King's speeches throughout the day and that his picture will be displayed in the bank's lobby.

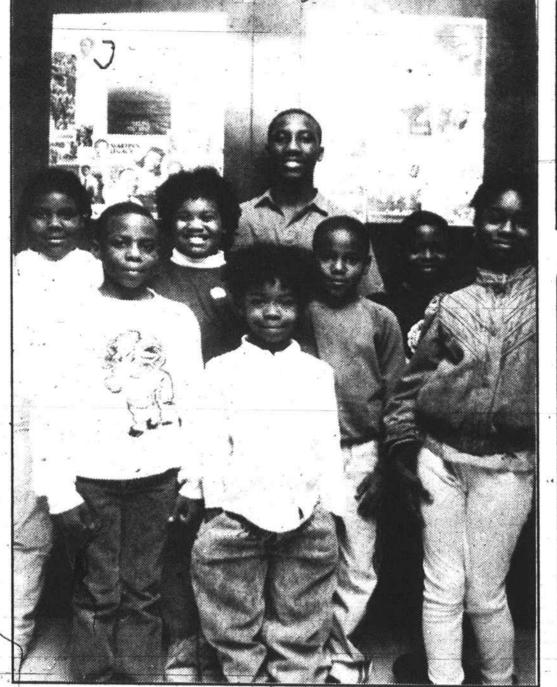

Photo by Charmane Delaverson

Children Celebrate

Tanita Williamson and Antonio Pettigrew, front, Rashaunda McCall, left, Money Reader, Rico Buffert, Leshan Cunningham, Reggie Jones and Christopher McCall gathered at Kingston and Greens Recreation Center for an exhibition honoring Martin Luther King Jr. The exhibition features 10 years of past articles, including stamps. Hansel Hentz was in charge of the program.

Thursday, January 12, 1989 Winston-Salem Chronicle Winston-Salem Plasma Center Tues., Wed. Fri., Free Mini physical •Test for AIDS Antibody& Hepatitis You must have local I.D. • Donations must be consecutive 725-9774 425 TRADE ST.

BRING THIS AD

The Experts at Households & Formals 612 West Fourth Street Winston-Salem, NC 27101 919-722-7106

ALL DRY CLEANING NEXT DAY SERVICE

PARK WAY CLEANERS

The Complete Garment Care Center 411 Peters Creek Parkway Winston-Salem, NC 27101 (919) 724-9880

BRING THIS AD

COME, STAY WITH US!

We Miss You!

Restway

600 Peters Creek Parkway

Free Continental Breakfast For You Every Morning!

Carver Road Church of Christ honors Dulin for service

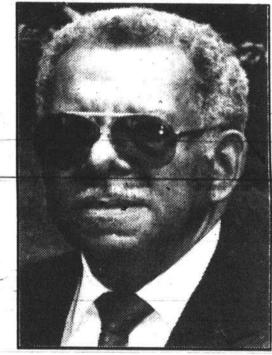

Carver Church of Christ recently honored Frank W. Dulin in recognition of a lifetime of love and dedication to his church.

Among those present at the celebration were Virginia Newell, Dennis McGovern, administrator of Reynolds Health Center; Clark S. Brown Sr. and Carol Benton, Dulin's secretary. Mrs: Newell, East Ward alderman, brought greetings and commendations from the mayor's office.

Also on hand for the occasion were Dulin's sons, Reginald B. Dulin of Texas, and Randy Dulin of Winston-Salem.

Dulin's wife, Mary, and daughter-in-law, Jackie, also attended the program and gave reflections on

Frank W. Dulin

Church dedication services planned

Dedication services will be held for the Back to the Bible Church Jan. 15 at 4 p.m.

The service will be conducted by Bishop Lawrence S. Tate, pastor of New Faith Chapel Holiness Church.

The Back to the Bible Church was formed in February 1988, when they began having services at the Masonic Temple on 14th Street. The church later relocated to its present site at 3902 Indiana Ave. The church's pastor is Larry R. Richardson. He began his ministry in December 1986 and delivered his trial sermon at Calvary Hill Apostolic Church. Richardson and his wife, Cynthia, have three children.

The church will continue its dedication services the following week with a four-night revival service. Tate will conduct the revival at 7:30 nightly Jan. 17 through 20.

Heating and Air Conditioning, Inc. Winston-Salem, N.C.

EARLY WINTER SPECIAL FOR ONLY $35.00

Heating System Check and Tune Up

Includes gas, oil and electric furnaces, heat pumps and hot water boilers. Residential systems only. Also includes new standard size flat disposable filter. Offer good only during January 1989.

Office 924-4161-Service 924-9381

Road and WCTS provided music their experiences with Dulin.

Members of the church participating in the program and offering assistant minister; Nick Shelton, Adele Thompson, Deacon Leroy Nelson, Mary Williams and Paul Sanders, minister of South English St. in Greensboro.

WOMAN OF THE YEAR

Deliver Your Form To:

for the occasion.

Presentations were made to remarks included Julius Greene, Dulin in the form of plaques, gift certificates and congratulatory letters from the city commissioner's office and Southwestern Christian College.

A reception was held in the fel-The Choral Ensemble of Carver lowship hall following the program.

MAN OF THE YEAR

Chronicle Award Nominees

The Winston-Salem Chronicle invites you to help in the selection of this year's recipients for our "Man and Woman of the Year" and for our based on his or her contribution to the Afro-American community. The "Community Service Award."

Recipients will be chosen by the Chronicle staff and advisory board. Judging will be based as follows: The "Man and Woman of the Year" will be persons who have demonstrated an outstanding character trait, one which would serve as a model for others. This could be the fact that they have triumphed over some personal tragedy, or they helped an individual (or group of people) overcome some obstacle in order to obtain a better standard of living. The incident or incidents for which the "Man and Woman of the Year" are being nominated must have occurred during the year of your nominees' accomplishments. Nominations must received by the

The recipient of the "Community Service Award" will be judged individual must have demonstrated a commitment to serving the Airo-American community through his or her affiliation with community service agencies, community-oriented projects or community institutions, ie, schools, churches, etc.

Your nominees (one for "Man of the Year," one for "Woman of the Year," the other for "Community Service Award") should be Winston-Salem residents and will be recognized in the Jan. 26, 1989, special edition of the Chronicle as well as receive commemorative plaques.

Please print legibly and be as specific as possible in describing Chronicle no later that 5:30 p.m. on Jan. 13, 1989.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Nominee's Name	Nominee's Name	Nominee's Name
Nominee's Address	Nominee's Address	Nominee's Address
Occupation	Occupation	Occupation
Activities, memberships, affiliations	Activities, memberships, affiliations	Activities, memberships, affiliations
		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·

Please explain briefly why you think this person deserves to be "Woman of the Year".	Please explain briefly why you think this person deserves to be "Man of the Year".	Please explain briefly why you think this person deserves to receive "Community Service Award".
Your Name	Your Name	Your Name
Your Address	Your Address
Your Phone: Home Work		Your Phone: Home Work
Your Signature	Your Signature

Winston-Salem Chronicle 617 N. Liberty St., Winston-Salem, N.C. 27102 (919) 722-8624