

Local AKA's welcome new members

Phi Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority welcomed 14 new sorority sisters into its sisterhood during the initiation ceremony on Jan. 8 at the Bethlehem Center.

Highlights of the orientation period included noteworthy service projects which involved several of the candidates relieving the staff and residents of the Battered Women's Shelter during their current renovation project by providing dinner, personal gifts and social activities. A wall clock was also presented for the shelter.

Other projects included assisting rest home residents during Christmas activities and an educational slide presentation of Africa, recently visited by one of the candidates.

The ceremony culminated weeks of orientation and activities. Approximately 85 sorority members and guests attended the reception which immediately followed the ceremony. Helen Hairston is the chairwoman of the membership committee.

Reception held for Josies in South Carolina

Special to the Chronicle

Holiday Inn on Calhoun Drive in Orangeburg, S.C., was the scene of one of the season's most unique wedding receptions recently. A reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. Alpha O. Josie II of Arlington, Va., who were married last year on Jan. 8, in Cebu City, Philippines, was given by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A.O. Josie.

The former Jennifer Minoza of Cebu City wore her wedding dress, a lovely white handmade gown with a high illusion neckline, embroidered sating bodice with crisscrossed folds of fine voile at the waistline and a graceful satin skirt with a three-quarter length overskirt of tulle. Her fingertip veil was accented with pearls.

As a surprise for the couple, his cousin, Marva Josie, a professional artist, was presented in a mini-concert of classical music. She was accompanied by Dr. Arthur L. Evans, director of the Fine Arts Department of South Carolina State College. Miss Josie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maxie W. Josie of Clairton, Pa.

Guests were delighted with her renditions of "The Lord's Prayer," "Ave Maria" by Schubert, "Smiling Through the Years," "Somewhere Out There" (a special favorite of the couple's), and "I Love Thee" by Grieg.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Dock A. Grier Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lowery of Winston-Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon A. Colbert of Macon, Ga.; Anita Hayne, Dr. Leroy Anderson, Mrs. Johnnie Wineglass, Dr. James R. Bonds and Mr. and Mrs. Maceo KcKissick of Charleston, S.C.; Dr. Agnes H. Wilson and Dr. W.B.D. Cooper of Sumter, S.C.; Naomi Bacote and Carol Williams of Moncks Corner, S.C.; Bertha Sumter of Florence, S.C.; Lenell Samuels of Manning, S.C.; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Gourdin of Columbia, S.C.; and Marva Josie and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Maxie Josie of Pittsburgh.

or four camperships each year. The group also sponsors at least one sanctioned bridge tournament each year. It also joins with other clubs to sponsor at least three other sanctioned tournaments. Guests are invited to participate in club games and tournaments. Fees are charged. Call 767-4087 for more information.

Renita Thompkins-Segers is the immediate past president and will be in training to become a club director. At present, Boone, a certified club game director is directing all club games.

Bridge games for the club are played Tuesdays at the Winston Lake Family YMCA. The club is open to those persons interested in joining. Persons interested in learning to play bridge should contact one of the officers or another member for information concerning the next beginners class.

In addition to participating in club games, members travel several times during the year to participate in bridge tournaments in other cities and states.

The club contributes money to the YMCA to sponsor at least three
