

Pepsi-Cola Bottling Company of Winston-Salem is proud to present the Winston-Salem Chronicle's 1988 All-County Offensive Team

It is with great commitment to supporting the youth of this community that we take part in honoring these athletes. The Pepsi-Cola Bottling Company applauds their team spirit and leadership attributes.

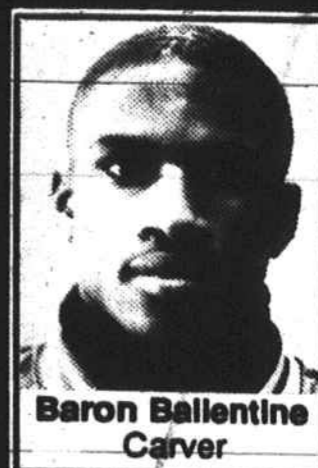

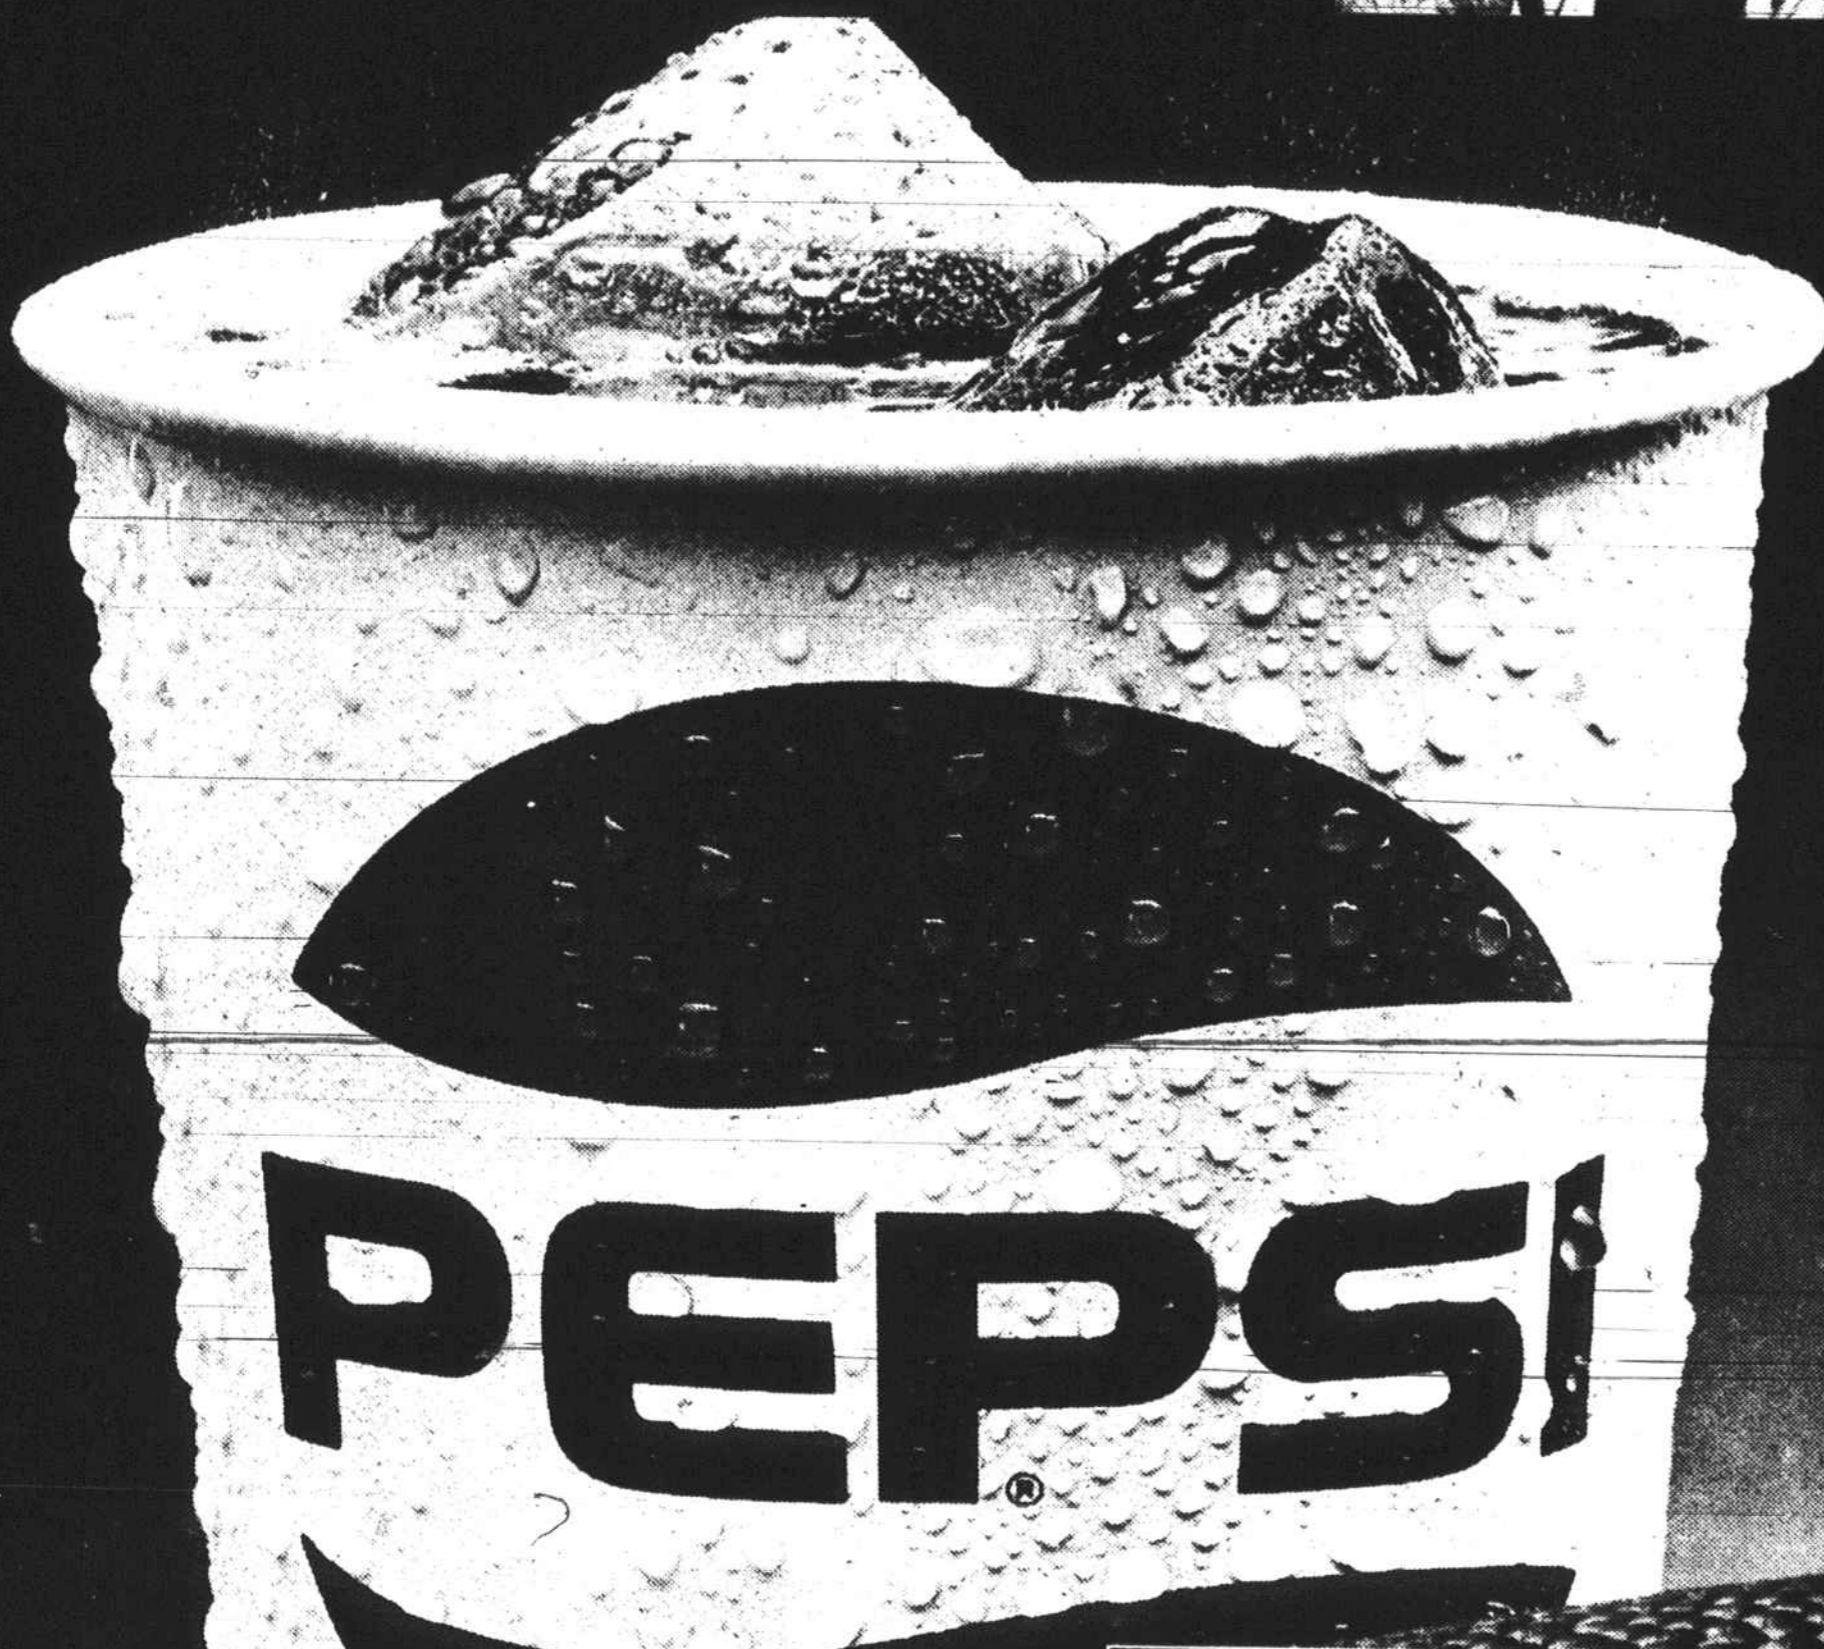

THE CHILL OF VICTORY.

OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

TIM WITHERSPOON

Tim Witherspoon of East Forsyth, a junior running back for Coach Perry Pearson's 5-5 Eagles, finished with nearly 1,000 yards in 1988. His explosive first step made him one of the city's most potent offensive players. The "Touchdown machine" is also a stand-out pitcher on East's varsity baseball team.
