

First Baptist Scouts advance in the ranks

Pack 868 of First Baptist Church held its mid-year advancement ceremony April 6.

The following scouts were advanced to Bobcat rank: Jonathan Wilson, Anthony Wright, Miguel Powell, Albert Morgan, Carlos Rawlinson, Cory Rawlinson, Rayshawn Brown, Thomas Wolfe, Gilbert Powell and Jay Carlton.

Bobcat is the first step on the cub scout trail.

Another group of scouts advanced to Wolf. They were: Douglas Mauney, Michael Dubose, Geoffrey Hill, Carlton Fairley, Aaron Sally, Johnathan Allen, Rashard Cash, Kegan Hagans, J.J. Transou and Eric Adams.

Scouts advancing to bear rank were Ron Vaighans, Santana Acker, Thomas Wright and Gerald Clements.

Also, the new Webelos scouts were awarded. They were: Jasper Brown, Benito Powell, Sherron

Bradley and Christopher Stukes.

Douglas Brown and Brannon McCullough advanced to boy scouting with scoutmaster Robert Alston.

In the same ceremony, Mrs. Clements was elected chairwoman of the pack committee. She also serves as activity coordinator. Mrs. Clements was named Den Leader of the Year for Pack 868 in 1988.

Vickie Rhynes was elected to serve as chairwoman of the Christmas Party Committee.

Shederick Adams is the cubmaster for pack 868 and has done an excellent job in motivating and recruiting parents to make the program successful. Mr. Adams proves that quality scouting, with parents helping out, can be achieved. This doesn't happen overnight but with dedication and everyone pitching in to help, scouting can be an excellent program for young men.
