

Tecora Haney wins Sethos crown

Tecora Haney recently was crowned queen of Sethos Court 105. She was crowned during the Queen's Ball held June 10 at the convention center.

Mrs. Haney was escorted by her husband, Noble Woodrow Haney Sr.

Several of her relatives and friends attended the formal affair. Among them were Mrs. Haney's niece, Marion Adams of New York, and her children and their spouses, Mr. and Mrs. Zannie Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Haney Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Manns and Linda Moore.

Mrs. Haney won the title by placing first among four contestants in a fund-raising campaign.

The tournament will be held at the Winston-Lake Family YMCA with registration beginning at 9:30 a.m. For more information call the tournament chair, Dr. Monica Lett.

WSSU's Davis publishes book on black aged

A book on the black elderly recently was published by a Winston-Salem State University professor.

Dr. Lenwood G. Davis' book, "The Black Aged in the United States: A Selectively Annotated Bibliography; Revised and Updated," was published by Greenwood Press of Westport, Ct.

The bibliography deals with new issues of such as the effects of prison life, AIDS, the gay lifestyle, adoption, sickle cell anemia and the abuse of the aged.

Attention also has been given to autobiographical sources, which provide insights into how the aged Afro-Americans felt about their pains, dreams, disappointments, hopes, sufferings and their experience with racism in this country.

Dr. Davis has written more than 80 published bibliographies and 20 books, including "I Have A Dream: The Life and Time of Martin Luther King Jr.," "A Paul Robeson Research Guide," and "The Ku Klux Klan: A Bibliography."

The book is dedicated to Dr. Jacquelyn J. Jackson of Duke University, the leading authority on the black aged, and the late Eunice Jacks Wright of Shelby.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Summer is here, so let's start the new year off right by volunteering your time and energy! Call the Volunteer Center of United Way at 723-3601.

CRITTER CUDDLIN' -- needs volunteers with pets to visit residents in nursing homes.

SPEAKER'S BUREAU-- After attending our training program and working as a volunteer for the agency for six months, volunteers are eligible to serve as speakers. These volunteers must attend a speakers' workshop and orientation session, and accompany current speakers prior to speaking to a group.

RECREATIONAL CHAPERONES -- We need volunteers to accompany and/or provide transportation for shelter residents and their children to recreational activities. These events may be planned by shelter staff or you can create an event of your own.

THERAPEUTIC CHILD CARE -- Under the direction of a shelter staff member, volunteers are needed to provide therapeutic child care for children of shelter residents or children of support/therapy group participants.

SHELTER VOLUNTEER -- Volunteers are needed to interact on a one-to-one basis with shelter residents. These volunteers act as a source of emotional support and provide practical aid for victims.

WORKSHOP LEADER -- Volunteers with arts and crafts skills, practical living experience, or special talents are needed to present educational workshops for shelter residents.

UNITED WAY needs volunteers to handle the infant car seat program. Involves training parents in proper use, maintaining equipment and inventory. Mondays 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., once a month.

WINSTON-SALEM FORSYTH COUNTY SCHOOLS need volunteers to help sort and discard clothing in school system's clothing room at the Old Walkertown School.

FELLOWSHIP HOME needs volunteer cooks for the breakfast and dinner hour. Thirty to 35 hours a week and some weekends.

RETIRED EXECUTIVE VOLUNTEER SERVICE needs volunteers knowledgeable and interested in training persons in the field of business practices. Five days a week or at your convenience.

VOLUNTEER needed to accompany nursing home resident to doctor appointments on an "on call" basis with a maximum of 10-day notice. Appointments should not number more than four per year. Transportation is provided, resident merely requires a person to ride with them to the doctor's office.

FORSYTH HUMANE SOCIETY needs volunteers two to four hours a week. Need a person that is comfortable with animals, office work also required.

FORSYTH MEMORIAL HOSPITAL needs volunteers in the areas of A.M. Admissions, Emergency Department, Nursery Photographer, Intensive Care Waiting Room, Patient Representative assistant, recovery room and outpatient center. Substitute volunteers needed on all services, which means someone could work on an irregular basis, rather than a set weekly assignment.
