

First Calvary marks Men's, Women's days

First Calvary Baptist Church observed its annual Men's and Women's Day Sunday, Oct. 8.

Speakers for the occasion were Dr. Manderline Scales, special assistant to the vice chancellor of student affairs at Winston-Salem State University, and Benjamin Ruffin, director of corporate affairs at R.J. Reynolds.

Carl McLaurun was named king and Mary Holmes was crowned queen.

The runners up were Carl Johnson and Edna Chavis.

Laura T. Kennedy was program chair. Committee members were Franklin Bennett, Macie Sibert, Dorothy Draper and Willie Parker.

Special Celebration

The king and queen recently were crowned at First Calvary Baptist Church during the church's observance of Men's and Women's Day. Above, runners-up Carl Johnson and Edna Chavis and winners Carl McLaurun and Mary Holmes. Committee members are at left.

Church Calendar

From Page B6

SUNDAY, OCT. 29

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Rev. Larry Spates of Morning Star Baptist Church will be the speaker at Pitts Memorial Baptist Church, 2000 Wilbur St., at 11 a.m. Dinner will be served after the service. Courtney Massey is chair of the Missionary Department; Dr. B.H. Bonham Sr. is host pastor.

Grace Chapel will host its first annual Bible Conference at 7 p.m. The church is located at 2801 Waughtown St.

The Nurses Board of Revelations of Faith Church Inc. will celebrate its fifth anniversary at 4 p.m. Elder John Miller, pastor of Beulah Baptist Church and his congregation will be the guests. Sharon Carroll, the founder of the Nurses Board will be honored. Evangelist Sarah C. Hauser is host pastor.

St. Peter's World Outreach Center will present the "Single Lights," a program designed specifically to address issues confronting single people and single parents. The "Single Lights" meets each second and third Sunday at 6 p.m. There also will be monthly or bimonthly fellowship activities. The program is an extension of St. Peter's World Outreach Center, located at 1031 N. Highland Ave. Elder J.C. Hash is host pastor. For more information call 722-2285.

'Christian Woman in a Changing World' to be theme for Antioch's Women's Day

Antioch Baptist Church will observe its annual Women's Day Sunday, Oct. 22, during the 11 a.m. service. This year's theme is "A Christian Woman in a Changing World."

Mary Lois Williams Reynolds, an ordained minister and a member of St. Peter's World Outreach Center, will be the guest speaker.

Mrs. Reynolds received her bachelor's degree from Winston-Salem State University. She received her master of science degree in reading from Stanford University. She currently is a reading coordinator at Walkertown Elementary School.

Mrs. Reynolds serves as president of the Agape Women and is a member of the praise team at her church. She also teaches Sunday school.

She and her husband, Logan, have one son.

The church also will celebrate Men's Day at 3 p.m. with Dr. Quincy A. Caldwell, pastor of United Progressive Baptist Church, as the featured guest.

The Rev. Jimmy Montgomery is host pastor.

Mary Lois Williams Reynolds

UNCF seeking information on local organizations

The United Negro College Fund is updating mailing lists for all clubs and organizations in Forsyth County.

The organization is seeking information from all groups such as fraternities, sororities, social clubs, community groups and other special interests groups.

The UNCF office is asking that all organizations supply a current list of the organization's name, address, president's name, contact person and phone numbers.

The information should be submitted to Diane Autry at the UNCF office, 630 First Union Building, 310 W. Fourth St. Winston-Salem, 27101. Call 748-0010 for more information.

Information may be called in, mailed or hand-delivered to the office.

The deadline for submissions is Oct. 31.

Full-figured fashion show to be held at Mount Zion Baptist

Jeanette Thomas is sponsoring a "What's Brewing in the World of Full-Figured Fashion" show Sunday, Oct. 29, at 5:30 p.m. in Mount Zion Baptist Church's File-Goodwin Life Enrichment Center.

The program is being held in memory of Mrs. Thomas' mother, Janie W. Thomas and will benefit the church's building fund.

Clothes, supplied by Just for You Boutique, will be modeled by members of the church.

Donations are $3.

The Rev. Serenus T. Churn is host pastor.

IT'S A FACT . . .

Vinyl Replacement Windows reduce your energy costs!

- Double glazed insulating glass
- Maintenance free vinyl frames
- Lifetime durability
- Tilt-action, easy-to-clean double-hung sash
- Lift-out, easy-to-clean slider sash
- Weatherstripping
- Half screens on double-hung and sliding windows
- Bows and Bays
- Double Hungs
- Sliders
- Gardens
- Casements

Add beauty to your home and save energy too. Call or come in today!

723-5147
1011 NORTHWEST BLVD.
(beside Boulevard PRO Hardware)

SOUTHLAND
HOME IMPROVEMENT CENTERS

CLASSIFIEDS GET RESULTS!
CALL 722-8624

SPECIAL SECTION

COMING NOVEMBER 2 in the

Winston-Salem Chronicle

Ebony Fashion Fair

The Winston-Salem Chronicle features the internationally famous fashion extravaganza in this attractive special section.

Photographs of some of the country's most beautiful Black models in this year's designer garments are always exciting to preview.

An advertisement in this section will reach some of Winston-Salem's most fashion-conscious consumers.

To reserve advertising space call
Julie Perry or Keith Williams at 722-8624

Winston-Salem Chronicle
The Twin City's Award Winning Weekly