Winners at last week's meeting held at the Carl H. Russell Recreation Center were George and Mary Boswell, first place; and Lillie Cuthrell and Lee Alma Vaughn, second place. The game was held Monday, March 19.

The Winston-Salem Duplicate Bridge Club met Tuesday, March 20, at the Winston Lake Family YMCA. Mavis Lloyd and Floyd Neal finished in first place; and Waldo and Marjorie Lester, second place.

Some members of the Kings and Queens Duplicate Bridge Club met last Thursday and played. However, no places were awarded for master points due to an insufficient number of tables. A number of members attended the NAACP made plans for the remainder of the current year. Also, plans are being made for the 1991 Grade "A" Tour-

Burlington. Local players are strongly urged to support the Burlington Grade "B" game on Saturday.

It was announced that the 1992 summer nationals will be held in Winston-Salem's Convention Center. This will be a week-long event. More details will be published in the future.

Food Bank of Northwest N.C. distributes 10 millionth pound

On Wednesday, March 14, the Food Bank of Northwest North Carolina distributed its 10 millionth pound of product to needy agencies.

That accomplishment represents a retail value of $19.3 million. Nan Holbrook, executive director since the Food Bank's founding, said, "We are pleased to have been able to salvage and distribute this much food to help agencies in the region. Ideally Food Banks would like to go out of business. Unfortunately, poverty and hunger continue to be persistent problems in our communities."

Established in 1982 by a group of community leaders, the Food Bank serves as a "middle man" between agencies that feed the needy and the food industry. By salvaging would-be wasted food from the food industry, the Food Bank is able to distribute food and related products to more than 250 agencies in 18 counties of Northwest North Carolina, including Forsyth County.

Riveting musical performances rock new film

MINNEAPOLIS -- Production Prince's fourth major motion picture, a new wave "Hollywood" musical with a contemporary urban slant, began last month and continues through March. The Minneapolis-based artist is directing, scoring and starring in "Graffiti Bridge," which also stars "Purple Rain" pals Morris E. Day and Jerome Benton. The film is introducing the intriguing and sexy newcomer Ingrid Chavez.

Leaked reports from the set of "Graffiti Bridge" have already caused a buzz throughout the entertainment industry. With the use of an eclectic mix of choreography by Otis Sallid, an intensely dramatic use of cinematography and a host of sizzling musical performances, industry insiders are already speculating that the film will be one of the summer's hottest attractions.

The film features Prince as the Kid (resurrected from "Purple Rain") and Morris E. Day as rivals in a power struggle over the direction of the Glam Slam, a nightclub they co-own.

Left to them in a friend's will, the Glam Slam is all that the two young men have in common. Money rules the sleazy world of Morris E. Day while the Kid is driven by a deeper force expressed through the powerful energy and raw beauty of his music.

Some of the film's hottest footage is sure to be the on-screen reunion of one the world's 'coolest' bands. Joining lead singer Morris Day and his sidekick Jerome Benton are the rest of the original Time bandmembers -- Jimmy Jam, Terry Lewis, Jesse Johnson, Jellybean Johnson and Monte Moir.
