Installation service set for Nash

Ministry for Christ Inc. Church, an affiliate of Macedonia TVPH Holiness Churches of God Inc., will hold an installation service for Andrea Miller Nash.

The service will be held Thursday, March 29, at 7:30 p.m. at 1901 E. 14th St.

The presiding prelate, Bishop S.D. Johnson, will officiate the service along with the congregation and choirs.

Mrs. Nash began the ministry in June 1984 as a home to house the homeless, sick and elderly of all races.

The home started with one elderly man from Macedonia TVPH Church, Elder James Adam Hairston. After his death the following year, Mrs. Nash received a charter for the ministry. The dedication service was held in honor of Elder Hairston during the home's grand opening ceremonies.

Mrs. Nash, the home's administrator, began preaching at the age of 20 at New Hope Church, whose pastor at the time was Bishop Dottie M. Bynum.

The ministry is going into its eighth year of service and will celebrate its anniversary in June and the church will celebrate its first year of service in April.

Bishop Johnson ordained Mrs. Nash in 1986 and she stayed under his leadership for 15 years.

Mrs. Nash is married to Deacon Melvin L. Nash and she is the mother of Nowlin D. Miller and Jonathan Spencer Cole.

She is the daughter of Ervin and Lillian Robinson. She has one brother, Edward Leon Miller, and one sister, Patricia Miller Douglas.
