

Hawkins attends Elks gathering

Daughter Arlease B. Hawkins, P.S.P.-P.G.D.R., attended the 70th North Carolina State Association of the I.B.P.O. Elks of the World in Raleigh, at the Radisson Plaza Hotel, May 4-8.

Mrs. Hawkins joined the Elks Organization in 1946, and has been a dedicated, devoted, and faithful member of the I.B.P.O. Elks of the World for 44 years.

There were two temples of the organization in Winston-Salem when she joined Elksdom, The Gardenia Temple and the Iris Temple. Mrs. Hawkins had joined the Iris Temple, and in 1947, the two temples were consolidated under the by-laws of the Daughter Elk Rituals, conducted by the Grand Lodge Secretary, and was then named the "Garden of Iris Temple, 220."

Mrs. Hawkins was elected Daughter Ruler of the Local Temple, and served in that capacity for 30 years. She also joined other clubs within the local temple: the Officers' Club, the Mary Ford Fez Education Department, and the Arlease B. Hawkins Past State Presidents Club, which was named in her honor.

Mrs. Hawkins is now Past State President of the North Carolina State Association. She has held this position for the last eight years, and was reelected as Daughter State President for two more years.

Mrs. Hawkins' position in the North Carolina State Association gives her the power to rule with fidelity, and see that all daughters be governed by the Laws of the Degree Ritual, with charity, justice, and sisterly love. Mrs. Hawkins presides over 48 North Carolina State Temples and conducts her meetings in the proper decorums, handed down from the rules and by-laws of the Grand Temple Ritual of the I.B.P.O. Elks of the World.

The Local Temple and Lodge (Carnel City Elks No. 1021) turned out in large numbers to attend the 70th North Carolina State Association. Among some of the members, degrees and honors were given: Dgt. Arlease Smith, Dgt. Debra King, Dgt. Mary Surls, and Dgt. Janice Ramadan, received their state degrees.

Past State President Honors were given to Dgt. Betty Wesley, P.S.P., she is also the Daughter Ruler in the Local Temple; Dgt. Evelyn Funches, P.S.P., the Local Temple Assistant Daughter Ruler; Dgt. Brenda Perkins, the 1990 State Queen Representative.

Daughter Past State Presidents retaining their seats, newly elected officers, and Past Daughter in attendance were: Mrs. Arlease B. Hawkins, Treasurer; Dgt. Leone Cannon, P.S.P.-P.G.D.R., Grand Region Director of Education; Dgt. Artanzia Jones, P.S.P.-P.G.D.R., N.C. State Purple Cross Nurse, PNC and Grand Organizer; Dgt. Mary V. Cuthrell, P.S.P. State Trustee, State Usher, and State Chairperson of the N.C. State Queen Department; Dgt. Dorothy S. Moore, P.S.P.-P.G.D.R., State Assistant Conductress, and State Advisory Board; Dgt. Lorraine Brown, P.S.P., N.C. State Usher; Dgt. Mary H. Benton, P.S.P., State Co-Chairperson of the Queen Department, and Personal Secretary to the State financial Secretary, Dgt. Bessie L. Wallace, P.S.P.-P.G.D.R. Dgt. Wallace is a member of the Capital City Temple #310 in Raleigh, N.C. Dgt. Thelma G. Moore, P.S.P.-P.G.D.R., Past Daughter of the Courtesy Department, Dgt. Maxine H. Lindsey, P.S.P., Past Daughter of the Registration Committee; Dgt. Laura Armstrong, Past Daughter of the Presentation Department; Dgt. Dorothy Murray, P.S.P., Past Daughter of Fund Raising Committee; Dgt. Gladys Jackson, P.S.P.-P.G.D.R., State Publicity Assistant.

Arlease B. Hawkins

Mrs. Hawkins is a member of the St. James A.M.E. Church, and is married to Edward J. Hawkins, who is also a member of the I.B.P.O. Elks of the World, and is the State Financial Secretary for the Enloe Department.

Dgt. Mary H. Benton, P.S.P., extends best wishes to all Brothers and Daughters of the Local Temple and Lodge for the 1991 Convention to be successful and well attended so as to support the State Association for progress and goodwill.

W-S Chapter of Top Ladies honors mothers on their day

The Ladies of Distinction Chapter of the Top Ladies of Distinction honored a mother on Mother's Day at the churches where the chapter had worshipped on its anniversary during its existence. Where possible, each honoree was presented a framed citation during morning worship by a club member.

Included among those honored were Gladys Brown Fleming of Shiloh Baptist Church and Carroll Brown Mayo of Mount Zion Baptist Church. Mrs. Fleming and Mrs. Mayo are the daughters of the late Frank W. and Mary Dalton Brown.

Mrs. Fleming has been a member of Shiloh for more than 73 years. She is the oldest active member of the church, and is active in the Church Sunday School and was one of its former teachers. Mrs. Fleming is a member of the senior choir, Ladies Aid No. 2, and Missionary Group No. 8, is a Deaconess and the President of the Conecta Hawkins Auxiliary. She attends the Weekly Prayer Service.

Mrs. Mayo, a surrogate mother, has been a member of Mount Zion since 1916. She too is the oldest active member of the church and is active in the Church Sunday School, the Baptist Training Union, the Ladies Progressive Club, and the Hattie File Club. She is a former member of the senior choir and the Kitchen Committee.

Cited for 80 years of service and for being the oldest active member of Saint Paul United Methodist Church was Mrs. Elizabeth Wade. Mrs. Wade is active with the United Methodist Women, and Chairs the committee which supervises the selection and arrangement of flowers for the altar and the church, and oversees the activities of the sick committee.

Mrs. Ella Belle Tillman was selected for honors at grace Presbyterian Church. She has been an active member of the church for more than 60 years. Mrs. Tillman is active with the Presbyterian Women, co-chair of the Finance Committee, moderator of the Trustee Board, moderator of Circle No. 2, and active in the Church Sunday School.

The final honoree, Mrs. Lelia Funchess, was from Hanes C.M.E. Church. Mrs. Funchess is 101 years old and a life-long member of Hanes.

The Senior Citizens Committee of the Top Ladies of Distinction initiated and developed the project. The presentations were made by a member of the honoree's church.

Is your son or daughter underachieving?

Underachievers frequently deny that they have a problem, yet they ask for help passively by working below their potential. If you believe that your child may be an underachiever, you owe it to your child and yourself to find ways of helping.
