

Congratulations to July 4th tournament winners

The following local bridge players participated in the Mid-Atlantic Sectional Tournament during the July 4th weekend: Bessie Allen, Pauline Caldwell, rected for any misinformation. Here is the information received from two local participants. Monica Lett and Irma Gadson, playing in the higher fields,

"Knock-out" game. Pauline Caldwell, playing with various partners, placed second in four different events. Inez Gerald and Ruth Washington placed third in a side game. All local players earned master points by way of winning games in the team events. Congratulations to all of these players!

Second Place — Rudolph Boone and Floyd Neal

Thursday, July 11, 1991 — 7 p.m. — Rupert Bell Recreation Center — Kings and Queens Duplicate Bridge Club
The group did not play for master points due to an insufficient number of players. The usual and expected factors during the season are affecting the local game participation.

The Kings and Queens Duplicate Bridge Club will sponsor their annual Grade "B" Tournament on Saturday, July 20, 1991. For further information, please contact any of the active members. Ruth Washington is the club's president. Dr. Monica Lett is the tournament chairperson.
