

Carver stays unbeaten, EF loses, WF and Parkland win

By Chronicle Staff

After five weeks, the race for the city/county title is beginning to take definite shape. Carver leads the pack at 4-0 and looks to be the team to beat. Meanwhile, East Forsyth lost its first game of the season, this one being decided in overtime.

In other games, Parkland and West Forsyth are jubilant after securing their first victories of the season. Here's a recap of last week's jayvee grid action.

Carver

The Yellowjackets used a big-play ground game in rolling to a 30-0 win over North Forsyth. Carver's is now 5-0 overall and leading the standings in the race for city/county jayvee championship at 4-0.

Center Maurice McMillan and guard Byron Epps opened huge holes for the rushing attack that totaled 290 yards. In the meantime, Johnny Senn produced some eye-catching numbers — 172 yards on nine carries and four touchdowns.

Senn scored on runs of 69, 65 and three yards. He also caught a 13-yard TD pass from quarterback Rico Hunter. Pedro Barnes scored the final Jackets' TD on a 13-yard run.

"I was pleased with what we did offensively," said Mike Pennington, Carver coach. We ran behind McMillan and Epps all night and Hunter had his best game of the season. He was poised and made good decisions on his throws."

Defensively, Carver continues to play miserly football with the help of defensive coordinator Cornell Wallace, a former cornerback for Winston-Salem State. "We have a good group on that side of the ball," said Pennington. "They're very aggressive and they like to hit."

East Forsyth

Previously unbeaten East got its first taste of defeat, losing 7-6 to South Stokes in overtime.

Regulation play ended in a scoreless tie. To break the tie, each team gets one series of downs from the opponents' 10-yard line to score a touchdown and extra point. If no team scores, the process is repeated.

East won the toss for first possession and scored on a five-yard run by A.C. Coleman. The PAT was no good.

Stokes returned the favor when they got possession, knotting the score at 6-6. The Eagles didn't help themselves when they were penalized for facemasking, giving Stokes an extra down to work with.

Mistakes may have been the major reason why this game reached overtime to start with. The Eagles shot themselves in the wings by committing six turnovers.

"We rushed for 250 yards so moving the ball wasn't the problem," said John Pegram, East coach. "But when you fumble and keep putting the ball on the ground, you're not going to beat many teams."

On defense, East got strong play from linebacker Jerry Hooper (10 tackles) who had missed the last three games. Defensive end Steve Vines was also a major contributor.

Mt. Tabor

The Falcons stand at 2-3 overall, but they have more than held their own against city/county opposition (2-1).

However, Tabor dropped its first game to a city team, Parkland, 26-14 last Thursday. The Falcons two victories have come against Glenn and North Forsyth.

But while they are currently under the .500 mark, coach Fred Gragg's group has been very competitive, losing those games by an average margin of eight points.

In the Parkland loss, Tabor's scores came on a 25-yard TD pass from Kyle Riddle to Ben Traschoma and a three-yard run by Harry Harris.

"We have a good group of kids," said Gragg. "What has hurt us is a few mental mistakes coming a key points during those games. We can move the ball, we just haven't been able to score as much as we would like to. Even so, I feel that the team is very capable of winning the majority of its remaining games."

Defense has been the strong suit for the Falcons, despite an off-night against Parkland. Prior to that game, the Falcons hadn't been scored on in three games. Top defenders for Tabor are tackle Kevin Jones, linebacker Arthur Gaitner and DB James Griffin (two interceptions vs. the Mustangs).

On offense, tailback Bernard Cole has been a major factor and so have quarterbacks Marquis Samuels, Reggie Hunt and Riddle.

Glenn

The Bobcats found themselves in a hole early and that set the tone for a 28-14 loss to Burlington Williams.

BW jumped on Glenn from the start and led 22-0 early in the second quarter. The 'Cats, however, responded with two touchdowns in the fourth quarter to close the gap.

QB Stephon Brown fired a 40-yard touchdown strike to Denorris Cloud and Aaron Boyd scored on a five-yard run.

"We did manage to come back within one touchdown of the lead," said Al Hooker, Glenn coach. "But we gambled and were hurt by an interception that led to Burlington's final touchdown."

Reynolds

Overcoming a big lead just wasn't in the cards for the Demons as they dropped a 27-12 decision to Greensboro Grimsley.

Grimsley wasted little time in taking control of the contest. By the half, they held a commanding 20-6 lead.

"We moved the ball, but we weren't able to close the gap," said James Alexander, Demons coach. "They had too much of a cushion for us to do that. But I was pleased with our defense in the second half. We had two good stands that kept them from putting more points on the board."

Demons quarterback Napoleon Davis had a hand in both of his team's scores, throwing for two touchdowns. Davis hit Torian Roseboro with a 55-yard toss for the first score. In the second half he connected with Thomas Pannell for a 35-yard score.

Parkland

The Mustangs finally broke into the win column when they downed Mt. Tabor, 26-14. Parkland took a 12-6 lead into the locker room at the half, then shut the door on Tabor to win comfortably.

"What stood out for us," explained Larry Lewallen, Parkland assistant coach, "is that we didn't beat ourselves like we had in earlier games."

The Mustangs took to the airways in the first half for their scores. QB Concho Brown hit Corey Wardlow for a 51-yard TD pass in the first quarter. In the next quarter, he hooked up with Leander

Baldwin for a 30-yard score.

Baldwin burned the Falcons again in the third quarter with a 61-yard TD run. Brown passed to Greg Lyndsey for the conversion.

Brown added the final TD for the Mustangs when he scored on a quarterback sneak.

Darryl Boyd and Androne Hackett led Parkland's defensive unit that put the stop on the Falcons in the second half.

North Forsyth

Vikings coach Darryl Napper is puzzled these days. He's trying to figure out how to get his team to play four, full quarters of football.

He hasn't come up with any answers as of yet. In a 30-0 loss to Carver, his guys held their own through the first 30 minutes of play, trailing 6-0 at halftime.

But the second half was a different story.

"Depth has been a problem for us," said Napper. "But I was pleased with how we played in the first quarter. If I can get them to play that way in the second half, we're going to win some ball games."

West Forsyth

The Titans got the production they needed up front which resulted in win No. 1 of the season, a 28-12 triumph over South Rowan.

West led 16-12 at the half, then added an insurance TD in the fourth quarter on a 50-yard pass from Brian Mayers to Eric Stewart.

The Titans broke on top 16-0 on TD runs by DeCarlos West, who rushed for 117 yards.

"This win was really needed," said Al Kayler, West Forsyth coach. "Anytime you score 28 points you know your offensive line has done the job. Those guys are awfully young, but as the weeks go by, they get better and better."

Offensive linemen Jason Cornatzer, Rob Creel, Ryan Miller, Allen Vance and E. Styers paved the way for the Titans' offense to function effectively.

Defensively, the Titans came through with the big plays when it mattered most. Late in the third quarter, South Rowan scored to cut WF's lead to 22-18. On their next possession they were driving for what would have been the go-ahead score. But the Titans defense slammed the door on SR on a fourth and two and crushed that scoring drive. Joey Douglas, Curtis Pope and Maurice Kennedy (one interception) were the top defenders for West.

"A big difference for us now is that we finally got all of our players back," said Kayler. Nose guard Chris Allison returned to the lineup after missing three weeks with a bad ankle and QB Mayers is back after spending two weeks with the varsity.
