Seizure in the first quarter. Rashon Payne took a shovel pass and ran for the PAT. The Vikes added to their lead late in the half when Junior Martin hooked up with Ricky Lyles on a 45-yard hail Mary pass for a score.

"Overall we played well," said Daryl Napper, North Forsyth coach. "The guys gave me all they had. I was pleased with how we played. I guess it wasn't meant for us to win two games in a row. We got off to a good start, then came the second half. Things just didn't work for us as well after we came back from halftime."

Reynolds

A missed conversion cost the Demons their golden chance to break Davie County's win streak. As a result, RJR lost 16-14 and DC's record now stands at 7-0.

DC jumped on top 8-0 with a touchdown and PAT in the first quarter. Reynolds, however, fired back. Fred Holland scored from two yards out and quarterback Napoleon Davis hit Robert Turner for the conversion to knot the score at 8-all.

The score remained the same until the third quarter when Davie reached paydirt and converted the two points PAT to go up, 16-8.

The Demons retaliated with another score in the fourth quarter. This time, Davis connected with Torian Roseboro on a 25-yard TD pass. Reynolds then missed the PAT which proved to be the final margin of victory for Davie County.

Davis and the rest of the Demons offense enjoyed success against DC because of some solid play in the trenches. The work of center Carlton Scrivens, guards Cliff Kaufman and Anthony Barbham, tackles Ed Baskins and Pierre Thompson, plus ends DeMarcus Polite and Turner allowed RJR's offense to operate with enough efficiency to create problems for the top-rated DC squad.

Running back Monte Baldwin contributed heavily to the ground attack all night, his best effort being a 70-yard run from scrimmage.

Defensively, Roseboro produced what may have been the biggest play of the night for Reynolds. On the final play of the first half, DC's would-be touchdown pass was knocked away at the last instant by Roseboro who was playing free safety.
