Utilities and Keep Winston-Salem Beautiful are co-sponsoring EnviroFair 1991, November 16

The City/County Utilities Division and Keep Winston-Salem Beautiful are co-sponsoring EnviroFair 1991. EnviroFair joins two popular events: household hazardous waste disposal day and recycling day. The event will be held Saturday, November 16, 9 a.m. - 4 p.m. at the Dixie Classic Fairgrounds. All participants should enter off University Parkway onto Deacon Blvd. and enter the midway of the fairgrounds gate 5.

The city's curbside recycling program also will be at the event between 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. to kick off phase II of curbside pickup. The curbside recycling program will provide educational exhibits on recycling, entertainment and food for EnviroFair participants.

All residents of Winston-Salem and Forsyth County are encouraged to clean out basements, garages and attics. Citizens should look for any household material that is poisonous, ignitable, explosive or corrosive such as metal polish, oven cleaners, rug shampoos, bug sprays, antifreeze and car products. They may also bring recyclables such as glass containers used for food and beverages, aluminum soda and malt beverage cans, plastic soda bottles and milk jugs, newspaper, magazines brown bags and boxes and computer paper.

For additional information on EnviroFair call Keep Winston-Salem Beautiful, 727-8013.

PROFILES IN CRISIS

Behind every fact and figure you see and hear about poverty and need there is a real human face. From the files of Crisis Control Ministry these faces emerge. Their names have been changed to protect their privacy. But their stories are real. You, who have given help to these people through your contributions to this Ministry, deserve to know how important your gifts are to the lives you have touched.

PROFILES IN CRISIS

An interviewer asked for help with an angry client. As I walked into the interview room, I saw a very attractive woman. I could see and feel her anger. She was red-faced and was nervously biting her fingernails. Her words were short and curt; but as she explained her need I realized it wasn't anger she was experiencing-it was fear.

Her small son, who was born with a heart defect, had just been released from the hospital with a prescription, which was his last chance for survival. The prescription would cost her $270 per month. Her salary from a full-time job was less than $1000 per month. She was divorced and received no child support.

I explained we could fill the prescription here. She said, "But I don't have the money!" I tried to explain again that we would help her and fill the prescription here in our pharmacy.

She still insisted she had no money, and suddenly it became very clear to me. The reason she could not comprehend what I was saying was because she had become accustomed to being turned away without help.

Finally, she stood up and shouted, "Wait a minute. Do you mean you'll fill this prescription for free?" When I said, "Yes," she slowly sat back down and said, "Oh, my! Tonight I will sleep."

A Simple Promise:

Overall, today's Dodge trucks, gas and diesel, can deliver more payload, towing and horsepower than Ford, Chevy or any import.* Period.

It's the simple truth. Today's Dodge pickups, Ramchargers, Ram Vans and Ram Wagons are a force to be reckoned with.

Because now they're available with the new Dodge Magnum Series Engines. V-6 or V-8 gasoline-powered engines with new sequential multipoint fuel injection for more power and torque.

Or the mighty Cummins Turbo Diesel with new charge-air cooling. And what these engines do for Dodge trucks makes an important difference.

3.9L Magnum V-6

Put the mid-size Dakota with an available Magnum V-6 up against any compact pickup from Ford, Chevy or Japan. With its 2,550 lbs of available payload and 180 horsepower, there's just no contest.

Or choose a Dakota with a Magnum V-8 and you've got a mid-size with 6,900 lbs of available towing capacity and 230 horsepower. That's more than standard half-ton Ford or Chevy pickups.**

5.2L Magnum V-8

And for the most available diesel towing power, there's the full-size Dodge Cummins Turbo Diesel.

With up to 11,900 pounds of pull, it plain out-torques and out-tows Ford and Chevy diesel pickups.** Plus you get new charge-air cooling designed to deliver excellent fuel economy and a cleaner burn.

Every one of these Dodge trucks gets powerful protection, with the Owner's Choice Protection Plan.

Choose our 7 year/70,000 mile power-train warranty or 3 year/36,000 mile bumper-to-bumper coverage. Diesel models are backed with a 7 year/100,000 mile engine warranty, as well.†

So it's clear. Only one truck line offers you all these powerful advantages.
